hectic life in Manhattan There s barely time for a trip to England for her little sister s wedding And there s certainly not time to think about what it will be like to see Ethan again who just so happens to be the best man But as the family frantically prepare for the big day Ruby can t help but wonder if she made the right choice all those years ago Because there is nothing like a wedding for stirring up the past Praise for The One That Got Away Sometimes there s nothing better than a good love story to get stuck into but this one is also hilarious and has totally relatable observations of modern life Essentials The trend for updating Jane Austen continues with this modern take on Persuasion split between the past and present and New York and Northumberland As New Yorker Ruby flies to the UK for her high maintenance sister s fantasy castle wedding facing her lost love is only one of her problems Frothy and very funny Sunday Mirror A lovely book by Melissa Pimentel that is the perfect easy read Hello Magazine A modern retelling of Persuasion The One That Got Away is a fun fast read about rediscovering a lost love PopSugar Best 2017 Summer Books for Women Mobile Media In and Outside of the Art Classroom Juan Carlos Castro,2019-09-19 This edited volume explores a range of educational effects on student learning that resulted from a long term study using a creative visual arts curriculum designed for mobile media smartphones and tablets and used in art classrooms The curriculum entitled MonCoin a French phrase meaning My Corner was initially designed and piloted in a Montreal area school for at risk youth in 2012 Since then it has been refined deployed and researched across secondary schools from a range of socio cultural educational contexts This book is comprised of contributions from researchers and practitioners associated with the MonCoin project who address critical insights gleaned from our study such as the social context of teen mobile media use curriculum theory and design influences of identity on creative practice and specific strategies for creative applications of mobile media in schools The purpose of this edited book is to offer art education researchers and teachers innovative curriculum for mobile media and the networked conditions that influence identity space and practice with and through this ubiquitous technology Bloomsbury Curriculum Basics: Teaching Primary Computing Martin Burrett,2024-08-22 The Bloomsbury Curriculum Basics series provides non specialist primary school teachers with subject knowledge and full teaching programmes in a variety of key primary curriculum subjects This is a revised and up to date hands on guide to planning and delivering primary computing lessons in a fun and refreshing way Updates include the following Coding New uses and capabilities of the program Scratch Artificial Intelligence AI and virtual reality including how to create art using AI and how to use ChatGPT The teaching ideas are well structured engaging easy to implement and use mostly free tools that operate across the many digital platforms that primary schools use while keeping in line with National Curriculum guidelines for KS1 and KS2 Each chapter offers practitioners an essential summary of all the information and vocabulary needed to successfully implement exciting computing lessons that will keep your class riveted

Woo Woo Ella Baxter,2025-12-02 A thrilling and eccentric novel about what it means to make art as a woman and about the powerful forces of voyeurism power obsession and online performance Woo Woo follows Sabine a conceptual artist on the verge of a photo exhibition she hopes will be pivotal as she plunges deeper into her neuroses and seeks validation in relationships with her frustratingly rational chef husband her horde of devoted Gen Z TikTok followers and even a mysterious potentially violent stalker Accompanying her throughout are Sabine's strange alter egos from hyperrealistic puppets of her as a baby to the ghost of conceptual artist Carolee Schneemann who shows up with inscrutable yet sage life advice Ella Baxter approaches the desire to see and be seen that defines both the creative and romantic act with humor empathy and a good dose of wildness driving Sabine to an surreal and compelling climax that forces her and us to reconsider what it means to be an artist and a partner ThompsonCourierRakeRegister_2018-08-02 , ThompsonCourierRakeRegister_2018 08 02

Hindsight Jenna Watt, 2022-08-04 Essential reading for lovers of the Great outdoors Roger Cox Scotsman Magazine Longlisted for the 2022 Highland Book Prize In 2019 Jenna Watt took part in the stalking of a hind on the vast Highland estate of Corroon part of an immersive attempt to understand the ideas that lie behind rewilding and what it means emotionally and physically to participate in Scotland's deer cull Piece by piece and chapter by chapter she unravels the story of that one day spent hunting the hind interlaced with her discovery that her ancestors were deer stalkers game keepers and ghillies on a Highland estate who once took part in increasingly controversial land practices like muirburn and species persecution This exploration leads her into the complex and often conflict ridden world of the rewilding movement She meets the Wolf Man of the Highlands who wants to introduce the first wild wolves back into Scotland for over 300 years a mountain ecologist who ranges alone across the landscape to track the environmental impact of deer on Scotland's upland ecosystem landowners who are reintroducing species like beaver onto their estates and a female deer stalker who is trying to introduce more women into the male dominated world of stalking and game keeping In the process Jenna comes to better understand the meaning of wildness the shifting baselines of rewilding and in a world beset by climate change and species extinction how to cope both as an individual and as a society with the concept of ecological grief
