Social Media and Everyday Life in South Africa Tanja E. Bosch, 2020-11-22 This book explores how social media is used in South Africa through a range of case studies exploring various social networking sites and applications. This volume explores how, over the past decade, social media platforms have deeply penetrated the fabric of everyday life. The author considers South Africans' use of wearable tech and use of online health and sports tracking systems via mobile phones within the broader context of the digital data economy. The author also focuses on the dating app Tinder to show how people negotiate and redefine intimacy through the practice of online dating via strategic performances in pursuit of love, sex, and intimacy. The book concludes with the use of Facebook and Twitter for social activism, e.g., Fees Must Fall, as well as networked community building as in the case of the #instaying movement. This book will be of interest to social media academics and students as well as anyone interested in social media, politics, and cultural life in South Africa. Social Media Marketing Dr. D.
