Good Meal Prep Ideas For Beginners and Dummies Barbara Dawson,2020-08-18 Meal prepping is making a meal or recipe then portioning it out to grab and go meals for later If you've ever kept your leftovers from dinner to take with you for lunch the next day then you've already mini meal prepped Generally though meal prepping refers to making 3-7 days worth of food at a time Think of it like making your lunches for the week all at once instead of making your lunch every day You can use this same technique for breakfast lunch dinner and snacks Meal prepping involves no extra waste and reduces the time to eat outside your home whether that's at a restaurant or a budget When making your meal plan the first question to ask is how many meals you want to eat each day without having to cook each day or eat out Meal prepping is not for everyone It is good for people who value convenience and free more time than cost With meal prepping you generally eat the same thing for a few days in a row so if you don't like leftovers or get bored with food meal prepping isn't for you If having nutritious food while maximizing your time and budget is more valuable to you than doing something different every day meal prepping is your ticket I've generally not seen a meal prep for the month or maybe one other person do a whole month Meal prepping for a whole month would be quite difficult but the more you do it the more you'll want to do it A food item is stored in the refrigerator for a long time in a slow motion In addition to the way food is packed the individual nuances of your refrigerator can impact the quality of refrigerated meals So the level of acceptability of the texture and flavor will be subjective to the eater Always begin with the refrigerator guidelines but the FDA and then consult them against your own preferences In general I don't think it's more than a few days worth of food but I find that but that's the food you'll eat and I'll be to you
