Sustained Emma Chase, 2015-08-25 When you're a defense attorney in Washington DC you see firsthand how hard life can be and that sometimes the only way to survive is to be harder Jake Becker has a reputation for being cold callous and intimidating and that's necessary when he's breaking down a witness on the stand Then Chelsea McQuaid and her six orphaned nieces and nephews came along and complicated the ever loving hell out of his life Chelsea needs someone to help her defend her and the kids too of course

Margaret Atwood's Dystopian Fiction Sławomir Kuźnicki, 2017-05-11 This volume details Margaret Atwood's dystopian novels through the themes of the ambivalent ethics of science and technology the position of women in the male dominated world and the ambiguous role played by religion and spirituality The book's unique and original approach places Atwood's fiction within the contemporary world with all the problems of our fast changing reality Furthermore it provides an excellent reading of her dystopias in a broader humanist context with an emphasis on the social cultural and political issues that have been important for both her the writer and us the readers

Young Adult Resources Today Don Latham, Melissa

Gross, 2014-05-21 Young Adult Resources Today Connecting Teens with Books Music Games Movies and More is the first comprehensive young adult library services textbook specifically written for today's multidimensional information landscape. The authors integrate a research focused information behavior approach with a literature focused resources approach and bring together in one volume key issues related to research theory and practice in the provision of information services to young adults. Currently no single book addresses both YA information behaviors and information resources in any detail; instead books tend to focus on one and give only cursory attention to the other. Key features of this revolutionary book include its success in integrating theory research and practice; integrating implications for practice throughout the book; integrating knowledge of resources with professional practice as informed by research; integrating both print and electronic formats throughout within the resource chapters including websites and social media. Latham and Gross accomplish all this while paying particular attention to the socially constructed nature of young adulthood diversity YA development and multiple literacies. Their coverage of information landscapes covers literature with detailed coverage of both genres and subgenres movies magazines web sites social media and gaming. The final chapter covers navigating information landscapes focusing on real and virtual YA spaces readers advisory programming and collaboration. Special attention is paid to program planning and evaluation.

Layla Colleen Hoover, A Wall Street Journal and USA Today bestseller From 1 New York Times bestselling author Colleen Hoover comes a novel that explores life after tragedy and the enduring spirit of love. When Leeds meets Layla he's convinced he'll spend the rest of his life with her until an unexpected attack leaves Layla fighting for her life. After weeks in the hospital Layla recovers physically but the emotional and mental scarring has altered the woman Leeds fell in love with. In order to put their relationship back on track Leeds whisks Layla away to the bed and breakfast where they first met. Once they arrive Layla's behavior takes a bizarre turn. And that's just one of many inexplicable occurrences. Feeling distant from Layla Leeds soon finds solace in Willow another guest of the B B with whom he forms a connection through their shared concerns. As his curiosity for Willow grows his decision to help her find answers puts him in direct conflict with Layla's well being. Leeds soon realizes he has to make a choice because he can't help both of them. But if he makes the wrong choice it could be detrimental for all of them.
