The Confessions of Al Capone Loren D. Estleman, Loren Estleman, 2025-10-16 Multiple award winner Loren D Estleman has produced a major biographical novel on the infamous Mobster known as Scarface rigorously researched and deftly nuanced to offer an intimate portrait of the gangster whose terrible crimes and larger than life persona have both fascinated and appalled the world for nearly a century whose legacy is still widely debated and whose brutally ambitious career in the Mafia continues to inspire filmmakers and writers to plumb its excesses and its contradictions In 1944 after Al Capone has been released from prison J Edgar Hoover assigns an FBI junior agent to insinuate himself into Capone s life and gain his trust so that Hoover can nail as many of Capone s Mob confederates as possible Capone suffering from the neurological effects of syphilis is alternately lucid full of the passion and energy that fueled his rise to the pinnacle of American crime and rambling or ranting the broken shell of a man released from prison so he could die at home with his family With the superb narrative gifts honed in dozens of novels Estleman has captured the essence of this American icon as never before With subtly nuanced portrayals of those in Capone s circle his underrated wife Mae Capone members of the Chicago Outfit including the deadly Frank Nitti as well as his nemesis J Edgar Hoover Hoover s secretary Helen Gandy and others The Confessions of Al Capone is a major literary achievement At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

Twentieth President of the United States Arthur David Hosterman, 2025-08-11 Reprint of the original first published in 1882 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Black Squirrel, Pieter Bruegel, Claude Monet Erwin D. Riedner, 2025-10-28 Bruegel Monet and Us once on this earth once on this familiar spot of ground walked other men and woman as actual as we are today thinking their own thoughts swayed by their own passions but now are gone one generation vanishing after another gone as utterly as we ourselves shall shortly by gone George Trevelyan The genesis of this story grew out from my long term attraction to and consideration of two paintings Pieter Brueghel's sixteenth century Fall of Icarus and Claude Monet's nineteenth century Impression sunrise For a long while I thought of the two as separate and nearly unrelated works of art different paintings different eras different traditions different references and messages Yet in spite of my being fully aware of their disparate synchronicities it got so that each time I looked at one the other inevitably crept into the back of my mind I seem to have begun to believe the two works were linked paired almost possessing some sort of weird artistic consanguinity Like a pair of long lost twins who share commonality but are yet strangers to each other a yin and a yang but where I didn't know which was the yang and which was the yin In this frustrating attempt to clear up of why I considered the Brueghel and the Monet as a strange twosome I attempted to write about their relationship I eventually found myself creating a story with the paintings as a backdrop a fiction set in a beguilingly attractive Midwest college town like the one where I now live and where beneath our pleasant veneer exist demonstrable cases of those who bully others who turn their backs to the beliefs and misfortunes of others As I worked through my story it began to dawn on me that while the Brueghel and the Monet paintings are indeed different from each other they can be said to exist as a conjoined contrasting duality and I began to worry that my seeing Monet's depiction of monumental change his declaration of Western culture throwing off the past and entering into a glowing new world of social brotherhood might well lean toward the Pollyanna That even as Monet celebrated human progress and awakening the Brueghel lurks in our psyche that we need to remind ourselves that the past like selfishness of turning away from misfortune remains with us that the awakening in Western culture the great Impressionist movement identified has yet to fully penetrate
