You can't defeat what you won't identify. Most believers are losing battles they don't know they're in, conquered by enemies they've befriended. The first victory is simply seeing the giant for what it is, not a personality quirk, not a family trait, not just how life is, but an enemy of your soul occupying stolen territory. Level 2 Resistance: Once exposed, giants get aggressive. They've been comfortable in the shadows; light threatens their existence. This level is where most believers get stuck; they see the enemy but lack the strategy to defeat it. You'll learn not just to resist but to go on the offensive. Level 3 Replacement: Empty territory invites occupation. It's not enough to evict giants; you must fill that space with God's presence and purpose. This is where freedom becomes transformation, where victory becomes inheritance, where surviving becomes thriving. Ready for War? Joshua stood at the edge of the Jordan River, staring at the same land that terrified his generation forty years earlier. The giants hadn't shrunk. The walls hadn't crumbled. The challenge hadn't diminished. But Joshua had changed. He'd watched Moses. He'd witnessed miracles. He'd waited four decades for this moment. And when God said, "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged; for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go" (Joshua 1:9), Joshua didn't count giants; he counted on God. Same command. Same promise. Different enemy. Same God. The question isn't whether you can defeat these giants; Christ already won that victory. The question is whether you'll appropriate what's already yours, whether you'll fight for what's been freely given, whether you'll possess what's been purchased. Your giants are real, but they're not rightful. They're powerful, but they're not permanent. They're intimidating, but they're not invincible. And they know something you're about to learn: Their time is up. The Journey Ahead: In the pages that follow, you'll meet your enemies face to face. You'll learn their names, study their nature, and discover their defeat. But more than that, you'll meet the Giant Killer who lives in you, the One who makes grasshoppers into giant slayers, who turns shepherd boys into kings, who transforms fugitives into warriors. This isn't just about winning battles; it's about taking territory. It's about generational deliverance. It's about becoming who God created you to be and doing what God created you to do. The giants are real. The war is real. But so is your victory. So is your inheritance. So is the God who goes before you. Let's go, giant hunting!

A Final Word Before We Begin One last thing: Giants don't die quietly. When you start this journey, expect pushback. Expect the very enemies exposed in these pages to rage against your reading, to distract your attention to minimize the message. They know what happens when God's people get serious about their inheritance. But remember: Their intimidation is proof of their desperation. Their roar reveals their fear. They know that an awakened, equipped, determined child of God is their worst nightmare. You're about to become that nightmare. Welcome to the war you were born to win.
