Pacific Diaspora Island Peoples In The United States And Across The Pacific:

Pacific Diaspora Paul Spickard, Joanne L. Rondilla, Debbie Hippolite Wright, 2002-08-31 Pacific Islander Americans constitute one of the United States least understood ethnic groups As expected stereotypes abound Samoans are good at football Hawaiians make the best surfers all Tahitians dance Although Pacific history society and culture have been the subjects of much scholarly research and writing the lives of Pacific Islanders in the diaspora particularly in the U S have received far less attention The contributors to this volume of articles and essays compiled by the Pacific Islander Americans Research Project hope to rectify this oversight Pacific Diaspora brings together the individual and community histories of Pacific Island peoples in the U S It is designed for use in Pacific and ethnic studies courses but it will also find an audience among those with a general interest in Pacific Islander Americans Contributors Keoni Kealoha Agard Melani Anae Kekuni Blaisdell John Connell Wendy Cowling Vincente M Diaz Michael Kioni Dudley Dianna Fitiseanu Inoke Funaki Lupe Funaki Karina Kahananui Green David Hall Jay Hartwell Craig R Janes George H S Kanahale Davianna Pomoaikai McGregor Brucetta McKenzie Helen Morton Dorri Nautu Tupou Hopoate Pauu A Ravuvu Carol E Robertson Joanne Rondilla E Victoria Shook Paul Spickard Haunani Kay Trask Debbie Hippolite Wright Pacific Diaspora Paul R. Spickard, Joanne L. Rondilla, Debbie Hippolite Wright, 2002 Although Pacific history society and culture have been the subjects of much scholarly research and writing the lives of Pacific Islanders in the diaspora particularly in the U S have received far less attention The contributors to this volume of articles and essays compiled by the Pacific Islander Americans Research Project hope to rectify this oversight Navigating CHamoru Poetry Craig Santos Perez, 2022-01-25 Navigating CHamoru Poetry focuses on Indigenous CHamoru Chamorro poetry from the Pacific Island of Gu han Guam Poet and scholar Craig Santos Perez brings critical attention to a diverse and intergenerational collection of CHamoru poetry and scholarship Throughout this book Perez develops an Indigenous literary methodology called wayreading to navigate the complex relationship between CHamoru poetry cultural identity decolonial politics diasporic migrations and Native aesthetics Perez argues that contemporary CHamoru poetry articulates new and innovative forms of indigeneity rooted in CHamoru customary arts and values while also routed through the profound and traumatic histories of missionization colonialism militarism and ecological imperialism This book shows that CHamoru poetry has been an inspiring and empowering act of protest resistance and testimony in the decolonization demilitarization and environmental justice movements of Gu han Perez roots his intersectional cultural and literary analyses within the fields of CHamoru studies Pacific Islands studies Native American studies and decolonial studies using his research to assert that new CHamoru literature has been and continues to be a crucial vessel for expressing the continuities and resilience of CHamoru identities This book is a vital contribution that introduces local national and international readers and scholars to contemporary CHamoru poetry and poetics Handbook for Achieving Gender Equity Through Education Susan S. Klein, Barbara Richardson, Dolores A. Grayson, Lynn H. Fox, Cheris

Kramarae, Diane S. Pollard, Carol Anne Dwyer, 2014-05-22 First published in 1985 the Handbook for Achieving Gender Equity Through Education quickly established itself as the essential reference work concerning gender equity in education This new expanded edition provides a 20 year retrospective of the field one that has the great advantage of documenting U S national data on the gains and losses in the efforts to advance gender equality through policies such as Title IX the landmark federal law prohibiting sex discrimination in education equity programs and research Key features include Expertise Like its predecessor over 200 expert authors and reviewers provide accurate consensus research based information on the nature of gender equity challenges and what is needed to meet them at all levels of education Content Area Focus The analysis of gender equity within specific curriculum areas has been expanded from 6 to 10 chapters including mathematics science and engineering Global Diversity Focus Global gender equity is addressed in a separate chapter as well as in numerous other chapters The expanded section on gender equity strategies for diverse populations contains seven chapters on African Americans Latina os Asian and Pacific Island Americans American Indians gifted students students with disabilities and lesbian gay bisexual and transgender students Action Oriented All chapters contain practical recommendations for making education activities and outcomes more gender equitable A final chapter consolidates individual chapter recommendations for educators policymakers and researchers to achieve gender equity in and through education New Material Expanded from 25 to 31 chapters this new edition includes more emphasis on male gender equity and on sexuality issues special within population gender equity challenges race ability and disability etc coeducation and single sex education increased use of rigorous research strategies such as meta analysis showing more sex similarities and fewer sex differences and of evaluations of implementation programs technology and gender equity is now treated in three chapters women s and gender studies communication skills relating to English bilingual and foreign language learning and history and implementation of Title IX and other federal and state policies Since there is so much misleading information about gender equity and education this Handbook will be essential for anyone who wants accurate research based information on controversial gender equity issues journalists policy makers teachers Title IX coordinators equity trainers women s and gender study faculty students and parents

Aikau, 2005 The connection between the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints and Hawai i may seem entirely strange to those whose image of the Church is of a predominantly white religion that appears to be hostile towards people of color homosexuals alcohol tobacco and coffee What many do not realize is that the roots of the Church in Hawai i run deep and that missionary work in the islands dramatically transformed the racial boundaries of the Church Polynesian pioneers 20th century racial formations and migration in Hawai i examines the politics of Polynesian Mormon identity formations through the institutions of religion tourism and the process of migration This dissertation explores the articulations of race in and through religious belief and religious institution I focus on the role the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints plays in the migration of Polynesians from their island homes such as Fiji Samoa and Tonga to Hawai i as well as the cultural preservation projects initiated by the Church in the form of the Polynesian Cultural Center a tourist facility located on the Northeast shore of O ahu Hawai i I argue that the Church is both a colonial actor and preserver of Polynesian culture and while appearing benevolent these cultural preservation projects must be understood in connection to a deeper history of United States imperialism as well as in the racial projects that exist within the doctrine of the Church and in American society more broadly Attention to the intersection of religion and migration provides a vantage point from which to explore waves of Polynesian migration that precede the larger waves of migration characteristic of the post World War II era and the passing of the 1965 Immigration act that toppled racially exclusionary immigration laws in the United States Drawing from oral history data I am attentive to how a religiously grounded racial identity is made and remade through conversion migration and settlement and tourism while also paying attention to the ways in which Polynesian Latter day Saints maneuver within Church owned institutions and towns

Pacific Studies, 2004

Migration Happens Katarina Ferro, 2006 Migration happens Migration is a global phenomenon that did not just emerge in the 21st century It is perceived by many as a constant source of problems and threats This notion is propagated by politicians among others who use migrants for to further their own political ideologies Due to economic and security developments globally migration is beset by increasing ethnical conflicts and restrictive immigration policies This in turn creates heightened difficulties for migrants But it also generates new life situations shapes lives and reshapes identities The region of the South Pacific is no exception Considering conflicts in recent years the issue of migration in this area exemplifies the contestation over migration This book provides an overview on migration issues in the South Pacific Issues such as gender the historical aspects and the history of migration in the Pacific migration and conflicts challenges for second generation migrants as well as the situation of Indians after the coup in Fiji are addressed in this volume of the NOVARA Contributions of Research in the Pacific

Diaspora Criticism Sudesh Mishra, 2006 Diaspora criticism takes the concept diaspora as its object of inquiry and provides a framework for discussing displaced communities in a way that takes contemporary social cultural and economic pressures into account It also offers an alternative to Postcolonial Studies This book is the first to provide an accessible overview of the critical trends in Diaspora criticism and to critically evaluate the major Diaspora critics and their models with the aim of adding to the debate on methodology This authoritative account will be of interest to those

Goetzfridt, 2011-03-31 Goetzfridt's work demonstrates the dynamics of history each generation considering past events in light of current realities and contemporary understandings of the world This volume therefore is important not simply because it provides us with an invaluable and substantial fount of references that will be supremely useful to teachers scholars and all enthusiasts of Mariana Islands history Its importance lies also in its packaging as a resource for current and future generations to understand the changing face and contested space of Guam history from the Foreword by Anne Perez Hattori Blending bibliographic integrity with absorbing essays on a wide range of historical interpretations Nicholas Goetzfridt offers a new approach to the history of Guam Here is a treasure trove of ideas historiographies and opportunities that allows readers to reassess previously held notions and conclusions about Guam's past and the heritage of the indigenous Chamorro people Particular attention is given to Chamorro perspectives and the impact of more than four hundred years of colonial presences on Micronesia's largest island Extensive cross references and generous but targeted samples of historical narratives compliment the bibliographic essays Detailed Name and Subject Indexes to the book's 326 entries cover accounts and interpretations of the island from Ferdinand Magellan's discovery of Guahan Guam in the Chamorro language in 1521 to recent events including the Japanese occupation and the American liberation of Guam in 1944 The indexes enable easy and extensive access to a bounty of information The Place Index contains both large and localized geographic realms that are placed vividly in the context of these histories An insightful Foreword by Chamorro scholar Anne Perez Hattori is included Amerasia Journal, 2004 The Decolonized Eye Sarita Echavez See, 2009 From the late 1980s to the present artists of Filipino descent in the United States have produced a challenging and creative movement In The Decolonized Eye Sarita Echavez See shows how these artists have engaged with the complex aftermath of U S colonialism in the Philippines Focusing on artists working in New York and California See examines the overlapping artistic and aesthetic practices and concerns of filmmaker Angel Shaw painter Manuel Ocampo installation artist Paul Pfeiffer comedian Rex Navarrete performance artist Nicky Paraíso and sculptor Reanne Estrada to explain the reasons for their strangely shadowy presence in American culture and scholarship Offering an interpretation of their creations that accounts for their queer decolonizing strategies of camp mimesis and humor See reveals the conditions of possibility that constitute this contemporary archive By analyzing art performance and visual culture The Decolonized Eye illuminates the unexpected consequences of America's amnesia over its imperial history
