A Relentless Hope Gary E. Nelson, 2007-05 Description Depression and related illnesses threaten to wreck the lives of many teens and their families Suicide driven by these illnesses is one of the top killers of these young people How do teens become depressed What does depression feel like How can we identify it What helps depressed teens What hurts them How do families cope with teen depression In A Relentless Hope Gary Nelson uses his experience as a pastor and pastoral counselor to guide the reader through an exploration of these and many other questions about teen depression Nelson has worked with many teens over the years offering help to those who find themselves confronted by this potentially devastating attacker The author also uses the story of his own son's journey through depression to weave together insights into the spiritual emotional cognitive biological and relational dimensions of teen depression Through careful analysis candid self revelation practical advice and even humor this pastor counselor and father reminds us that God's light of healing can shine through the darkness of depression and offer hope A Relentless Hope is written for teens parents teachers pastors and any who walk with the afflicted through this valley of the shadow of death Endorsements Whether you are a youth struggling with depression a family member of a depressed teen or a pastor counselor or teacher providing support and help in such circumstances this book is a must read as the most informative and helpful volume available on the subject Merle R Jordan Professor of Pastoral Psychology Emeritus Boston University School of Theology This story of a family is an incredible gift of honest reflection So many families deal with the issue of teen depression As the dean of a theological school I am aware of the numbers of youth that my students deal with who are in this book Depression self medication with alcohol and drugs self doubt and even considerations of suicide as an answer all are in our communities and probably in even a small church This book is about an attitude that avoids denial attempts to keep a sense of humor and believes in the miracle of life Thank you Tom for allowing your story to be told Maxine Clarke Beach Vice President and Dean Drew Theological School This is a story of amazing grace I love the challenge Gary gave the reader throughout the book Never give up on loving I was reminded in a very tangible way of the limitless capacity of God who loves us the same way He never stops What an incredible mantra for all of us Never give up on loving Never I wonder how different our world would be if we practiced this command Rev Dale Seley Pastor Downtown Baptist Church Alexandria Virginia About the Contributor s Gary E Nelson DMin is a United Methodist minister who for thirty years has worked with teens and their families as a local church pastor and as a pastoral counselor He currently pastors a church in West Virginia

Why Patients Sue Doctors; Lessons learned from medical malpractice cases Duncan Graham, Bernard Kelly, David A. Richards, 2019-03-29 Why do patients sue their doctors The answer is not straightforward It is unlikely to be singular One thing however is certain the answer is important to the quality of health care This book provides answers to this important question In Why Patients sue Doctors the authors draw on their collective experience in over 1000 real life medicolegal cases to explore why and how doctors make mistakes By analysing and discussing the situations and behaviours that lead to complaints by patients and their families this book provides practical guidance on how to improve clinical care and avoid litigation The lessons learned will help practitioners in the future avoid some common clinical pitfalls of the past This will be of immediate interest to anyone concerned about the quality of healthcare and how to improve it The cases presented by the authors will also be of general interest to those wishing to know more about medical litigation

Universal Access and Assistive Technology Simeon Keates, Patrick Langdon, P. John Clarkson, Peter Robinson, 2013-06-29 The first Cambridge Workshop on Universal Access and Assistive Technology CWUAAT was held at Trinity Hall Cambridge in March 2002 It was inspired by the earlier highly successful Cambridge Workshops on Rehabilitation Robotics organised by the late Robin Jackson Robin was the founder of Rehabilitation Research at Cambridge which now continues in the Engineering Design Centre within the Department of Engineering led by John Clarkson and Simeon Keates and in the Rainbow Group within the Computer Laboratory led by Peter Robinson CWUAAT represents the first in a new series of workshops that we are aiming to hold every two years which reflecting the spirit of recent moves to extend the rights for universal accessibility will encourage discussion of a broad range of interests There will be a general focus on product solution development Hence it is intended that the principal requirements for the successful design of assistive technology shall be addressed where these range from the identification and capture of the needs of the users through to the development and evaluation of truly usable and
