Social Media in Northern Chile Nell

Haynes,2016-06-06 Based on 15 months of ethnographic research in the city of Alto Hospicio in northern Chile this book describes how the residents use social media and the consequences of this use in their daily lives Nell Haynes argues that social media is a place where Alto Hospicio's residents or Hospiceos express their feelings of marginalisation that result from living in city far from the national capital and with a notoriously low quality of life compared to other urban areas in Chile In actively distancing themselves from residents in cities such as Santiago Hospiceos identify as marginalised citizens and express a new kind of social norm Yet Haynes finds that by contrasting their own lived experiences with those of people in metropolitan areas Hospiceos are strengthening their own sense of community and the sense of normativity that shapes their daily lives This exciting conclusion is illustrated by the range of social media posts about personal relationships politics and national citizenship particularly on Facebook

Facebook Nation Newton Lee, 2014-10-16 Facebook's psychological experiments and Edward Snowden's NSA leaks epitomize a world of increasing information awareness in the social media ecosystem. With over a billion monthly active users Facebook as a nation is overtaking China as the largest country in the world. President Barack Obama in his 2011 State of the Union Address called America the nation of Edison and the Wright brothers and of Google and Facebook. U.S. Chief Information Officer Steven VanRoekel opines that America has become a Facebook nation that demands increased transparency and interactivity from the federal government. Ubiquitous social networks such as Facebook Google Twitter and YouTube are creating the technologies infrastructures and big data necessary for Total Information Awareness a controversial surveillance program proposed by DARPA after the 9/11 attacks. NSA's secret PRISM program has reinvigorated WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange's accusation that Facebook is the most appalling spying machine that has ever been invented. Facebook CEO Mark Zuckerberg once said We exist at the intersection of technology and social issues. This book offers discourse and practical advice on the privacy issue in the age of big data business intelligence in social media e government and e activism as well as personal total information awareness. This expanded edition also includes insights from Wikipedian Emily Temple Wood and Facebook ROI experts Dennis Yu and Alex Houg.
