Young Children's Rights in a Digital World Donell Holloway, Michele Willson, Karen Murcia, Catherine

Archer, Francesca Stocco, 2021-08-19 This volume focuses on very young children's aged 0-8 rights in a digital world. It gathers current research from around the globe that focuses on young children's rights as agential citizens to the provision of and participation in digital devices and content as well as their right to protection from harm. The UN Digital Rights Framework of 2014 addresses children's needs, agency and vulnerability to harm in today's digital world and implies roles and responsibilities for a variety of social actors including the state, families, schools, commercial entities, researchers and children themselves. This volume presents a broad range of research including chapters on parental supervision and control, the changing forms of play, early childhood education, media and cultural studies, law, design, health, special needs, education and engineering. Implicit within this book is the acknowledgement that children of various ages, abilities, socioeconomic and geographic backgrounds should have equal access to and positive, non-harmful experiences with new digital technologies and content as well as adult support and expertise that enhances these experiences. This passionate book celebrates the diversity of young children's activities in the digital world. It interrogates these through four intersecting lenses: their rights, play, experiences, contextualised design and best practice. Balancing children's eager engagement with digital content alongside adult responsibilities for education, privacy and protection, the volume provides a fitting showcase for work of global relevance. Professor Lelia Green, Professor of Communications, Edith Cowan University, Perth, Western Australia. This compelling text provides a critical resource to inform our understanding of the intersection of the digital world and children's rights. Ilene R. Berson, Ph.D., Professor of Early Childhood Education, Affiliate Faculty, Learning Design Technology Area, Coordinator, Early Childhood, Coordinator, Early Childhood Ph.D. Program, University of South Florida, College of Education. A truly international collection that investigates young children's engagement with digital technologies. Identifying issues of public interest around digital practices, this highly readable book is a valuable resource for researchers, parents and policy makers. Professor Susan Danby, Director, ARC Centre of Excellence for the Digital Child and Faculty of Education, School of Early Childhood and Inclusive Education, QUT, Kelvin Grove, Queensland.

Hate Follow Erin Quinn-Kong, 2024-10-08

A rich and witty story with two complicated women at its heart. Hate Follow is a beautiful debut. Quinn-Kong's story of an influencer mom sued by her resentful daughter is of the moment, but its exploration of female power and privilege is timeless. Amanda Eyre Ward, New York Times bestselling author of Lovers and Liars. This riveting, thought-provoking novel pulls back the curtain on influencer culture to reveal a story of a mother and daughter grappling with what they owe one another as they struggle to navigate life in the glaring public eye. Influencer Whitney Golden has it all: beautiful, photogenic children, a handsome new boyfriend, a gorgeous house and designer clothes and beauty products that arrive on her doorstep every day. After spending years building her brand as a widowed mother of four, including twins, to over a million followers, the thirty-seven-year-old is at the peak of her career. But it all comes to a screeching halt when Mia, her teenaged daughter, announces she's tired of the social media life. She wants nothing more to do with her mother's online brand and demands that not just she but her siblings and their deceased father be removed from Whitney's Instagram blog and just about everywhere else on the internet. When Whitney doesn't agree, Mia does the unthinkable. She sues her mother. What started as a family spat turns into a monumental case about child privacy, individual agency, and modern parenting that shatters Mia and Whitney's relationship and wreaks havoc on both their lives. As the case ignites a media firestorm and unrelenting online bashing from a Greek chorus of internet snarkers, Whitney has to decide whether she's willing to risk everything she's built to win back her daughter.
