Jones,2023-03-01 This book contains an argument supported by education philosophers as well as composite stories data and personal experiences The author mentions a number of scholars e g Benjamin 1988 Buber 1970 Noddings 2005 2013 Palmer 1983 van Manen 1986 1991 2000 who address important human issues in the field of education and she ties their work and hers to show common themes within the issues of care responsivity and relational ethics The first part of the book Introduction and Chapters 1 3 is primarily philosophical and the author shares the thoughts of the aforementioned scholars and others on topics relating to the very human work teachers do The next section of the book Chapters 4 6 combines theoretical works and empirical data to address the complexity and humanity of teaching While the work described in the aforementioned chapters may appear to present an idea of ethical teacher perfection this is not the case Teachers are not supposed to be nor are they logistically able to be all things to all children The final chapter instead addresses how stakeholders e g educators administrators parents can gently move our traditional education system toward this ideal This conclusion shares the ways teachers and teacher educators can
