The SEC and BaFin - US and German Capital Market Supervision in Comparison Veronika Fischer, 2009-07-08

Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2008 in the subject Law Comparative Legal Systems Comparative Law grade cum laude University of Augsburg Prof. Dr. M. I. llers course Rechtsvergleichung Kapitalmarktrecht language English abstract

To the point four years ago the German Act Establishing the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority FinDAG provided for a one stop financial services agency BaFin which was to succeed three formerly independent public authorities for the supervision of banking insurance and securities. Whereas this on stop shop approach has been both acclaimed and criticized the US Securities and Exchange Commission from its very beginning administered the areas of corporate finance market regulation and investment. Although the missions of both supervisory authorities correspond the powers transferred and thus the means of operations differ sharply. Limited to the supervisory power for capital markets the thesis will analyse the agencies historical development governing law operations and legal means and conduct an estimate of their economic efficiency. A comparison will help to provide suggestions for further legal design and development of the BaFin in the following years.

Veronika Fischer geb. 1982 promovierte nach dem Studium der Rechts und Wirtschaftswissenschaften Universität Augsburg und dem Abschluss als MBA University of Dayton im internationalen Kapitalmarktrecht mit einem US Forschungsaufenthalt University of North Carolina. Sie ist einer internationalen Unternehmensberatung tätig.
