Good Meal Prep Ideas For Beginners and Dummies Barbara Dawson,2020-08-18 Meal prepping is making a meal or recipe then portioning it out to grab and go meals for later If you've ever kept your leftovers from dinner to take with you for lunch then next time you've made mini meal prepped. Generally though meal prepping refers to making 3-7 days worth of food at a time Think of it like making your lunches for the week all at once instead of making lunch every day You can use this same technique for breakfast lunch dinner and snacks Meal prepping involves no waste and results in time to do other things whether that's planning a diet or a budget When making your daily food choices the question is how long will you be able to eat homemade meals without having to do it every day Meal prepping is not for everyone It is good for people who value convenience and often more than anything else With meal prepping you generally eat the same thing for a few days in a row so if you don't like leftovers or get bored with food meal prepping isn't for you If having nutritious food while maximizing your time and budget is important to you then trying something different every day meal prepping is not for you I've generally not seen a meal prep for the month or maybe one other person do a whole month Meal prepping for a whole month would be quite difficult but if you really want to try it you would need to make a meal plan and store it in the refrigerator in a slow cooker or in a slow cooker In addition to the way food is packed the individual nuances of your refrigerator can impact the quality of your refrigerated meals The length of time the food is acceptable to eat and the texture and flavor will be affected by the eater Always begin with the refrigerator guidelines but the FDA and then consult them against your own preferences In general I don't think it's more than a few days worth of food at a time but I find that because of the food quality it's better to just
