Smoller, 2021-09-01 In recent years new obscure or poorly known dermatological disorders have been described and better defined with emphasis on clinical histopathological and etiopathogenetic features Familiarity with these new emerging or revisited clinical entities is fundamental and recognizing them with their differential diagnosis has important implications in clinical practice for better patient management This book offers an in depth discussion of the clinical and pathologic features of newly described or less well known and revisited cutaneous disorders It provides clinical findings as well as the histologic immunologic and molecular features of these diseases in addition to therapeutic notes The first section of the book covers cutaneous diseases that lack any systemic implications such as circumscribed palmoplantar hypokeratosis necrotizing infundibular crystalline folliculitis and dermal hyperneury amongst others The second section offers coverage on cutaneous diseases with systemic implications such as AESOP POEMS syndrome lipoatrophic panniculitis of children and obesity associated with lymphedematous mucinosis Each chapter describes an entity along with an atlas of clinical manifestations that will serve as a bed side clinical reference followed by a series of photomicrographs depicting the histologic changes Chapters also offer recent updates on molecular tools helpful in attaining the diagnosis as well as therapeutic recommendations based upon the more recent acquisitions New and Emerging Entities in Dermatology and Dermatopathology is a must have reference for the practicing dermatopathologist internists general pathologist reviewing skin biopsies general dermatologists family practitioners and nurse practitioners geneticists immunologists and other health care providers that care for patients with skin conditions

Late Bronze Age Weapon Depositions of North-Western Europe Tobias Mörtz, 2024-11-20 The European Bronze Age ca 2200 to 800 BC is characterised by the deposition of metal artefacts in very different compositions and conditions They were usually deliberately abandoned in conspicuous places especially near bodies of water The purposes of these actions continue to be controversially interpreted in archaeological research with the spectrum of suggestions ranging from hidden treasures in times of crisis to concealed caches of craftsmen and traders to ritual offerings to superhuman beings Tobias Mörtz systematically presents a specific group of these so called hoards and discusses their interpretation in a wider cultural scientific context Based on his own investigations of the original artefacts traces of wear and damage are identified on spearheads and swords from Britain France and Ireland indicating their use during violent conflicts and subsequent deliberate destruction by bending breaking crushing and burning The final concealment in wetlands and rivers ruled out a potential retrieval So were they sacrifices after warlike events What role did violence play in the Late Bronze Age Were the rituals also intended to contain it Tourist Destinations According to Stakeholder Strategies Pierre Louart,Jérôme Piriou,Philippe Violier,2024-07-19 Tourist destinations are subject to the strategies and interactions of the people who reside in them with complementary and sometimes conflicting interests To ensure that these destinations remain competitive Destination Management Organizations DMOs are tasked with stimulating cooperation between all partners independents organizations networks Tourist Destinations According to Stakeholder Strategies is based on a series of case studies that are analyzed and discussed from a dual geographical and managerial perspective This enables us to extract operational typologies and propose recommendations for actors in the tourism sector The authors have opted for an original and innovative name for the object of study Localized Tourism Systems LTS thus emphasizing the triple aim of territorialization tourism activities and actors that interact together in collective projects
