

THE WORLD WAR TWO SERIES

MOSSINGDENE, 1944

The image is a composite. In the foreground, a dark silhouette of a man in a military-style jacket is riding a horse, facing left. The horse and rider are positioned on a dark, grassy hill. In the background, a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds is filled with several large, multi-engine bombers, likely B-29 Superfortresses, flying in formation. The bombers are shown from various angles, some in profile and others from a slightly elevated perspective. The overall composition suggests a historical narrative of aerial warfare and its impact on the ground.
