

After a few days, Fi even dared to ask Lady if she could climb up her leg and sit between her ears. When Lady agreed, Fi climbed up. Lady stood very still, although it tickled a bit. When Fi sat between Lady's ears, she was overjoyed. To be that big was wonderful!

Of course, the other little mice were allowed to try it as well. Now hardly a visit to the pasture goes by without the little mice climbing between the horses' ears and letting themselves be carried around.

Sometimes the horses gallop across the pasture with the little mice between their ears. However, Lucky and Lady make sure that the little mice hold on tightly to their manes and do not fall off.

Questions about the text:

1. What are the names of the friends of the little mice?
