

Big Friends

The little mice Ni, Ti, and Fi like to visit the horse pasture at the edge of the forest. Although horses are quite big, Ni, Ti, and Fi have made friends in the pasture.

When the little mice saw the horses for the first time, they approached them very carefully. They were quite scared because the horses seemed huge to them. But Ni, Ti, and Fi are also very curious little mice and the horses interested them.

When the little mice approached the horses very slowly, one of the horses said, "Hello, who are you? You don't need to be afraid. We are very careful. We can see how small you are."

That was when Ni, Ti, and Fi introduced themselves. They learned that the horses' names were Lucky and Lady.

The next day, when Ni, Ti, and Fi went back to their friends Lucky and Lady, they were not scared at all.
