Regional Economic Outlook, April 2017, Western Hemisphere Department International Monetary Fund. Western Hemisphere Dept.,2017-05-19 With the global economy gaining some momentum economies of Latin America and the Caribbean are recovering from a recession at the regional level in 2016 This gradual improvement can be understood as tale of two adjustments external and fiscal that are ongoing in response to earlier shocks But headwinds from commodity terms of trade shocks and country specific domestic factors are fading paving the way for real GDP to grow by about 1 percent in 2017 Regional activity is expected to pick up further momentum in 2018 but at a slower pace than previously anticipated while medium term growth is projected to remain modest at about 2.6 percent The outlook is shaped by key shifts in the global economic and policy landscape where slow growth low productivity and high income inequality are creating pressure for a shift toward inward looking policies in some advanced economies Domestic fundamentals and developments however will continue to play a significant role in determining growth for the region At the same time risks to the outlook have widened in a setting of higher global uncertainty In this challenging external context countries should aim for completing fiscal and external adjustments to preserve or rebuild policy buffers Charting a course toward higher sustainable and more equitable growth will also require strengthening structural reforms Specifically closing infrastructure gaps improving the business environment governance and education outcomes and encouraging female labor participation are necessary to boost medium term growth and foster income convergence Chapters in this report examine the ongoing external adjustment to terms of trade shifts drivers of capital flows to the region the role of the investor base and macroeconomic impact of migration and remittances Inequality and Poverty across Generations in the European Union Tingyun Chen,Mr.Jean-Jacques Hallaert,Mr.Alexander Pitt,Mr.Haonan Qu,Mr.Maximilien Queyranne,Alaina Rhee,Ms.Anna Shabunina,Jérôme Vandenbussche,Irene Yackovlev,2018-01-24 This SDN studies the evolution of inequality across age groups leading up to and since the global financial crisis as well as implications for fiscal and labor policies Europe s population is aging child and youth poverty are rising and income support systems are often better equipped to address old age poverty than the challenges faced by poor children and or unemployed youth today Generational Interdependencies: The Social Implications for Welfare Beverley Searle,2018-01-15 The issue of generational transfers is growing in importance Populations are ageing placing an increasing burden on provision of pensions health care and other welfare services In many nations the imbalance between a growing older generation supported by a shrinking younger generation has fuelled debates about intergenerational justice The key argument being that political and institutional developments over the last century have been to the advantage of older generations at the expense of current younger and future generations But this only addresses half of the story neglecting the flows of resources through private family channels One key response to the growing fiscal problem of ageing societies has been to focus responsibility on self funding and familial support The growth of asset values particularly housing which are concentrated among the elderly underpin such strategies But this exposes new risks as potentially extractable resources are determined by wider fluctuations in the economy and housing markets in particular Clearly these cohort effects and responses to them play out differently in different national developmental settings depending on long run patterns of economic social and demographic change This collection address these issues and provides original insights across different international contexts The collection focusses on financial and non financial transfers generational interdependencies and the role of labour and housing markets in welfare support set against the changing economic landscape following the Great Financial Crisis of 2007 Although institutional and national differences exist the key emerging issues are the same the financial and welfare challenges of supporting aging in societies inequalities in the availability of assets across individuals families and nations and the extent to which private asset accumulation can support families over the life course Drawing from examples across European countries this collection will nonetheless be relevant to researchers and policy makers in other nations addressing the complexities of providing welfare across the life course in the face of restricted financial resources Old-Age Provision and Homeownership - Fiscal Incentives and Other Public Policy Options Martina Eckardt,Jörg Dötsch,Stefan Okruch,2018-05-10 In light of demographic change and the growing problems of traditional old age security systems this book discusses two essential instruments in connection with privately providing for old age security 1 savings in private pension schemes and 2 building up equity for home ownership

Further it assesses the relationship between the two instruments and offers a unique overview of the latest market developments In order to represent the profound differences between the individual member states of the EU this book features six country specific studies covering Germany Hungary Ireland Italy the Netherlands and the United Kingdom that provide detailed insights into the complexity of local private pension schemes mortgage markets and housing markets Lastly the book discusses public policies and fiscal incentives intended to better integrate residential property with private pensions It will appeal to both private households seeking to build up old age security as well as policy makers interested in providing secure pension schemes

Well-Being and Extended Working Life Tindara Addabbo,Patricia Carney,Áine Ní Léime,Jeroen Spijker,Siniša Zrinščak,2022-11-25 Most European countries have experienced labour market reforms at varying times leading to extended working life and a postponement of retirement age This book provides a gender perspective on the impact of extended working life on the different dimensions of well being the factors which can limit extended working life and the working conditions of older workers Over the course of 11 chapters the book explores factors that can limit access to paid work or affect working conditions for older workers including care for dependent individuals negative stereotypes surrounding aged workers and poor health It also investigates differences in working conditions for older workers by gender compared to other groups of workers and across European countries including case studies from Austria France Spain Poland Croatia Albania and Turkey It will be of interest to all scholars and students of social policy sociology gender studies and labour studies more broadly

Clark,YoungWook Lee,Andrew Mason,2021-04-30 Focusing on the developing economic challenges confronting Korea and the US in response to the aging of their populations this timely book examines how public policies are evolving in light of demographic changes the impact of aging on governmental expenditures and transitions in the labor force associated with aging

Sustainably funding a marginal welfare programme Mathew Jonathan Clifford Wills,2020-03-31 Social care for older people is a non core welfare programme financed by a secondary area of the English state that has suffered significant reductions in spending over the past decade Policymakers recognise that social care has a structural funding problem and there is a broad consensus that an alternative sustainable funding approach is needed to deliver appropriate and equitable levels of social care provision but policymakers have consistently failed to reform how social care is financed This thesis explores why implementing meaningful funding reform has proved to be so difficult and suggests possible paths to more sustainable care funding

Economics and Ageing José Luis Iparraguirre, 2019-11-29 This upper level textbook provides a coherent introduction to the economic implications of individual and population ageing Placing economic considerations into a wider social sciences context this is ideal reading not only for advanced undergraduate and masters students in health economics and economics of ageing but policy makers professionals and practitioners in gerontology sociology health related sciences and social care This volume introduces topics in labour economics including the economic implications of ageing workforces It covers pension economics and pension systems with their macroeconomic and distributive effects and the question of risk Finally it describes macroeconomic consequences of ageing populations on aggregate saving inflation international trade and financial markets

Misery beneath the Miracle in East Asia Arvid J. Lukauskas, Yumiko Shimabukuro, 2024-12-15 Misery beneath the Miracle in East Asia challenges prevailing views of the East Asian economic miracle Existing scholarship has overlooked the severity persistence and harmful consequences of the social welfare crises affecting the region Arvid J Lukauskas and Yumiko Shimabukuro fill this gap and put a major asterisk on East Asia s economic record Combining big picture analysis abundant data a dynamic interdisciplinary framework and powerful human stories they shed light on the social ills that governments have failed to address adequately including low wages child abuse elderly poverty and substandard housing One of the major forces behind the multidimensional welfare crises is the region s productivist welfare strategy which prioritizes economic growth while abandoning a robust social safety net leaving the most vulnerable segments of society largely unprotected Misery beneath the Miracle in East Asia brings the region into debates over the dangers of seeking growth at all costs that are currently embroiling the United States and other advanced industrialized countries

Long-Run Biological Interest Rate for Pay-As-You-Go Pensions in Advanced and Developing Countries Mr. Masahiro Nozaki, 2017-04-27 How much of an internal rate of return would a sustainable pay as you go pension system offer current and future generations equally The answer is the sum of the Long Run Biological Interest Rates LBIR the real world equivalent of Samuelson s 1958 biological interest rate and future productivity growth Reflecting global population ageing the median LBIR across 172 countries is as low as 1 percent per year The LBIRs are particularly low in advanced countries estimated to be negative in many of them and require ample financial reserves today or future productivity growth to maintain participation in pension schemes On the other hand the LBIRs in less developed regions such as in sub Saharan Africa are relatively high indicating a potential to use a pay as you go scheme to expand the coverage of public pensions Raising the retirement age by five years brings up the LBIR by 40 basis points significantly improving the long run budget constraint of a pension scheme

Public Economics Burkhard Heer, 2019-02-08 Today the most pressing challenges for public economics are of macroeconomic nature pensions debt income distribution and fiscal sustainability All these problems are compounded by the phenomenon of demographic transition and aging This graduate textbook addresses these issues with the help of state of the art macroeconomic tools that are based on a sound microfoundation and rooted in empirical evidence Different from the standard partial equilibrium analysis in traditional textbooks on public economics the concept of general equilibrium helps to account for compensating or amplifying side effects of economic policy GAUSS and MATLAB computer code as well as teaching material slides are available as downloads from the author s homepage

ESTONIAN DISCUSSIONS ON ECONOMIC POLICY | ESTNISCHE GESPRÄCHE ÜBER WIRTSCHAFTSPOLITIK | EESTI MAJANDUSPOLIITILISED VÄITLUSED Universität Tartu,TU Tallinn,FH Kiel,2018-12-10 Gender, Ageing and Extended Working Life Wendy Loretto,Clary Krekula,Sarah Vickerstaff,Debra Street,Aine Ni Leime,2019-01-23 Nations that are raising retirement ages appear to work on the assumption that there is appropriate employment available for people who are expected to retire later Gender ageing and extended working life challenges both this narrative and the gender neutral way the expectation for extending working lives is presented in most policy making circles The international contributors to this book part of the Ageing in a Global Context series apply life course approaches to understanding evolving definitions of work and retirement They consider the range of transitions from paid work to retirement that are potentially different for women and men in different family circumstances and occupational locations and offer solutions governments should consider to enable them to evaluate existing policies Based on evidence from Australia Germany Ireland Portugal Sweden the United Kingdom and the United States this is essential reading for researchers and students and for policymakers who formulate and implement employment and pensions policy at national and international levels

Handbook of Research on Entrepreneurship and Aging Mikaela Backman,Charlie Karlsson,Orsa Kekezi,2019-12-27 Many developed countries are facing a demographic change with an increasing share of older individuals yet little is known about how older workers will impact regional and national economies in terms of labor market dynamics This Handbook deals with the important and emerging field of entrepreneurship among this group and focuses on the behavioral perspectives of this phenomenon on innovation dynamics and performance and the ways entrepreneurship among the elderly looks within different countries
