Dear Mr. Deniro,

Please accept my enclosed application for the position of administrative assistant at Tech Corporation. Having read through your job description, I am thrilled to be applying for this position as my 6 years of experience and skillset match the requirements you're looking for.

At my current company, Redford & Sons, I am valued by the CEO and his staff as a critical support pillar for the team, keeping meetings, papers, travel arrangements, and office items organized at all times. I spearheaded the effort to "go digital" for almost all planning and paperwork, increasing office efficiency to the point of saving $3,000 per year in contracted labor expenses.

I was also tasked with training two administrative assistants in my previous position, proving that I can perform the all necessary duties described in your job description, and even train others in how to perform in this role effectively, should the need arise.

I would love to have to opportunity to join the team at Tech Company and use my skills to create an efficient and stress free office environment for your executives. I believe I can meet and exceed the expectations you have for this role. I look forward to speaking more with you about my candidacy. Feel free to contact me at any time.

Best,
Kelly Blackwell

A Crash Course In Cover Letters: Adapting An Old School Tool For Your Digital Job Search J. Maureen Henderson, 2012-06-11 Today job seekers need to build active networking based methods into their job searches They have to have a game plan and it s got to be crafty bold and strategic Hiding behind a computer and machine gunning resumes into blind mailboxes over and over again is the recipe for a super long frustrating job search Cover letters we hear are redundant a waste of time for the applicant and the hiring manager no longer useful in the age of online applications and no one knows how to write them anyway This is just plain wrong Done right cover letters provide an additional means by which you make your case for hiring to the employer Far from being job search relics they continue to provide value both to you and to the hiring manager in the application process And yes they are still considered essential documents by a majority of employers As reported by the Washington Post 53% of employers surveyed give the edge to applicants who include cover letters over those who do not and 91% claim that a well written cover letter improved the odds of a less qualified candidate reaching the interview stage A cover letter can truly make or break your application In this book you ll find out Whether to leave that graduate degree off your resume and what you can fake What you never should when describing your skill set How to find a job with social media savvy How to make sure social media isn t working against you How to stand out in the slush pile
