Perception In Architecture Here And Now:

PERCEPTION in Architecture Miriam Mlecek, Claudia Perren, 2015-02-27 Definitions of space are as diverse as the disciplines in which it plays a fundamental role from science and philosophy to art and architecture each field's perception of space is often simplified or reduced This consequently denies access to new spaces whose definitions and perspectives strategies and impacts on human perception are rarely considered in any cohesive manner This is where the Aedes Network Campus Berlin ANCB programme No Space Without Traits came in particularly through artistic approaches it aimed to open doors into spatial worlds that until now have remained closed The symposium PERCEPTION in Architecture HERE and NOW was part of this programme and invited critical and comprehensive contributions by academics artists architects designers and curators These presentations are brought together in this volume to reflect upon new spatial concepts and thus access new spaces of perception in architecture The symposium stimulated a discourse focused on spaces as a collective entity notions of spatial truth the multiplicity of experience and Wahrnehmungsapparate as well as physical visual acoustic and virtual manifestations of space in relation to social cultural historical and political forces

Japanese Horror and the Transnational Cinema of Sensations Steven T. Brown, 2018-02-05 Japanese Horror and the Transnational Cinema of Sensations undertakes a critical reassessment of Japanese horror cinema by attending to its intermediality and transnational hybridity in relation to world horror cinema Neither a conventional film history nor a thematic survey of Japanese horror cinema this study offers a transnational analysis of selected films from new angles that shed light on previously ignored aspects of the genre including sound design framing techniques and lighting as well as the slow attack and long release times of J horror's slow burn style which have contributed significantly to the development of its dread filled cinema of sensations

The Routledge Handbook of Philosophy of Colour Derek H. Brown, Fiona Macpherson, 2020-09-27 From David Hume's famous puzzle about the missing shade of blue to current research into the science of colour the topic of colour is an incredibly fertile region of study and debate cutting across philosophy of mind epistemology metaphysics and aesthetics as well as psychology Debates about the nature of our experience of colour and the nature of colour itself are central to contemporary discussion and argument in philosophy of mind and psychology and philosophy of perception This outstanding Handbook contains 29 specially commissioned contributions by leading philosophers and examines the most important aspects of philosophy of colour It is organized into six parts The Importance of Colour to Philosophy The Science and Spaces of Colour Colour Phenomena Colour Ontology Colour Experience and Epistemology Language Categories and Thought The Routledge Handbook of Philosophy of Colour is essential reading for students and researchers in philosophy of mind and psychology epistemology metaphysics and aesthetics as well as for those interested in conceptual issues in the psychology of colour

Architectural Regionalism Vincent B. Canizaro, 2012-03-20 In this rapidly globalizing world any investigation of architecture inevitably leads to considerations of regionalism But despite its omnipresence in contemporary practice and theory architectural regionalism remains a fluid concept its historical development and current influence largely undocumented This comprehensive reader brings together over 40 key essays illustrating the full range of ideas embodied by the term Authored by important critics historians and architects such as Kenneth Frampton Lewis Mumford Sigfried Giedion and Alan Colquhoun Architectural Regionalism represents the history of regionalist thinking in architecture from the early twentieth century to today

Architectural Technicities Stavros Kousoulas, 2022-07-15 This book poses a simple question how is this architecture possible To respond it will embark on a captivating journey through many singular architectural concepts The entasis of Doric columns Ulysses and desert islands will outline an architectural act that moves beyond representation A ferryman who stutters will present two different types of architectural minds A stilus and a theory of signs will reconsider the ways architects can develop a particular kind of intuition while architectural technicities will bring forth a membranic and territorial understanding of architecture Finally as a melody that sings itself a larval architecture will be introduced bringing space and time together Assisting this endeavour the thought of philosophers like Gilles Deleuze Felix Guattari Gilbert Simondon and Raymond Ruyer will meet the latest developments in fields like affect theory cognitive sciences environmental studies and neuroanthropology Eventually by the end of this book the readers from architecture students and researchers to academics and practitioners with an interest in theory will have been exposed to a comprehensive and original philosophy of architecture and the built environment

Law, Religion, Health and Healing in Africa M. Christian Green, Faith Kabata, Fortune Sibanda, 2022-12-31 The Covid 19 pandemic was global in its spread and reach as well as in its medical social and economic effects In many respects the global effort to flatten the curve produced a flattening of experience around the world and a striking coincidence of similar experiences in countries the world over The identity simultaneity and uniformity of experience were also manifest in common concerns at the intersection of law and religion in many nations around the world including Africa The lockdowns and closure of religious worship centres churches mosques and religious organisations of all sorts raised questions of freedom of religion and the related concern for freedom of assembly along with concerns about the relation of religion to science and public health religious channels of communication and religious provision of social services After all health communications and social services are all areas in which African religious organisations play key roles Potential tensions around these issues raised further considerations about the nature of religion state relations the status of religious authority and whether religious and state actors would work together or at odds in addressing the Covid 19 pandemic

The 1970s is Here and Now Samantha Hardingham, 2005-04-29 The 1970 s was marked by a seismic change that occurred in the representation of ideas in architecture as they appeared monthly on the pages of AD The magazine bears out the energetic experimental environmentally conscious and ultimately pluralist culture that prevailed throughout the 1960 s carrying it through to the emergence of Post Modernism in the late 1970 s This issue of AD presents a Cosmorama for Now looking at such subjects as
