particular service Voices of Angels John R. Batty, John Batty, 2015-07-13 As Hurricane Katrina barreled towards New Orleans Louisiana hospitals across the city prepared for the coming storm Staff members streamed in and began stockpiling food water medical supplies and fuel But what no one foresaw was that their emergency generators would flood and fail leaving hospitals stranded in the rising water with no air conditioning or much of their equipment and unable to evacuate patients and staff by land Throughout the devastating winds rising waters and August heat nurses stuck by their patients They improvised new emergency procedures and methods of record keeping and patient transport all without power or reliable information These angels saved lives while their world fell apart around them The individual voices of nurses come from six New Orleans area hospitals Veterans Affairs Pendleton Memorial Medical Center of Louisiana in New Orleans Charity Tulane Medical Center and Ochsner as well as Lambeth House retirement community and the Emergency Operations Center in Baton Rouge They speak to the vital importance and ingenuity of nurses under pressure This work examines the disaster plans used by each facility examines what the most successful procedures were and provides recommendations for preparing nurses for disaster response Voices of Angels is a case study and planning guide essential for facilities facing hurricanes tornadoes power outages and a host of other issues that affect medical centers nationwide Nursing Study and Placement Learning Skills Sue Hart, 2010-03-04 Nursing students require a unique study skills book to help them succeed in both the classroom and the clinical area Nursing Study and Placement Learning Skills is a once stop shop of trustworthy and professional advice for all aspects of the pre registration nursing course with additional insights from students lecturer and mentors Search for the Sun Ellen Anthony, 2002-11 The princess is dead murdered in a crime that rocks Gardon and only her infant son is left alive Who did it the General the Healer or the Prime Minister And why Donal Yorkson and his veteran partner try to untangle the wicked crime only to find no motive and a preposterous list of suspects When his partner turns up dead Donal must defy his father and even his queen to uncover a crime more terrible than murder Negotiating Gendered Identities at Work S. Halford, 2006-05-10 How does gendered organizational life impact on individuals identities in their everyday working lives This question is explored with theoretical insights from disciplines including Sociology Geography History and Gender Studies interwoven with a major new empirical study of doctors and nurses working in the British National Health Service Reflections of a Self-Made Man Doug Smith, 2010-07-27 Through these pages youll experience two very true and meaningful love stories Ive seen love from both sides now That doesnt mean in winning or losing In both of these encounters of the heart I dont consider either one as a loss Carol taught me how to open up my heart and receive love unconditionally I loved her with my total being Charlotte proves to me every day that she loves me unconditionally Both of these incredible women had and have my heart in nothing less than total commitment You will also experience a victory over a life long and very personal issue Gender disorders are very serious in nature for they are fooling with Mother Nature We exist with invisible birth defects that are very visible to us Some of us dont make it to the victory party of our bodys emergence Some of us try to cut out the parts that shouldn't be there Many die or try to escape with drugs or alcohol I've told the story with my usual sense of humor honesty and passion for life These are all very important traits that have helped me survive during my journey Now I'm looking to the future with a new body and name more fitting to my heart soul and spirit Some people may not agree with what I have done I challenge them to read Reflections with an open heart and mind imagining themselves in my shoes walking down the same path My Fifty Year Nursing Journey Barbara Ann Burke NA LVN ADN BSN MSN, 2013-07-26 In this sometime amusing sometime challenging journey through fifty years of Nursing this author presents her favorite memoirs Beginning as a young sixteen year old Nurse Aide in the early 1960's her long walk through Nursing launches in a small town hospital in the south She moves you through youthful learning experiences Nurse trainings personal struggles with choices and lessons learned in life Her progression through young adulthood addresses concerns of leaving her own children to care for patients and all the usual parenting versus career issues young Mothers deal with Her sometimes joyful sometimes stressful Nursing world is described from her early education throughout Nursing positions in many settings Her return to college as a mature woman to achieve further degrees is certainly respectable Watching a young and naive girl grow into a successful confident Nurse with experience in several arenas will delight and entertain you Anyone who is interested in the field of Nursing must travel this journey with this Nurse She is now considering retirement and is in a quandary Nursing is her life and walking away is difficult You will quickly realize Just Why On Earth Anyone Would Ever Want To Be A Nurse

Stories from the Front Line: The People Behind the NHS Headlines

Yvonne Bennett, Christina Stead, 2025-01-07 NHS Scotland appears to be in crisis Today the British media is full of headlines such as 89 year old great grandmother waits 5 hours for an ambulance These are a talking point for a day or two and then another headline of a similar ilk takes over This book examines the traumatic experiences of the elderly people whose stories make up these headlines The authors have carried out research into the effects of long waiting times for ambulances and the problems that NHS Scotland is facing through chronic staff shortages The waits and the limitations to patient care have long term implications for the patients the relatives and the staff Throughout the book we discuss iatrogenic disease harm that is occurring daily for patients visitors and staff The book concentrates on the new Glasgow hospital The Queen Elizabeth University Hospital which opened its doors in 2015 This is one of the largest hospitals in Europe and replaces 5 older Glasgow hospitals and has been beset by major problems since its opening By interviewing relatives and staff the authors have examined their experiences both during and following a traumatic event Themes found throughout the book include poor communication trauma low staff morale suicide and the problems caused by the size and design of the hospital The authors have also analysed statistics from NHS Scotland and Scottish Ambulance Service regarding waiting times and the use of agency staff The overarching goal of this book was to give a voice to those behind the statistics Professional Nursing Concepts Anita Ward Finkelman, 2013 takes a patient centered traditional approach to the topic of nursing education
