Good Meal Prep Ideas For Beginners and Dummies Barbara Dawson,2020-08-18 Meal prepping is making a meal or recipe then portioning it out to grab and go meals for later If you've ever kept your leftovers from dinner to take with you for lunch then next time you've learned mini meal prepped Generally though meal prepping refers to making 3-7 days worth of food at a time Think of it like making your lunches for the week all at once instead of making lunch every day You can use this same technique for breakfast lunch dinner and snacks Meal prepping involves no waste and results in time to do other things outside of the kitchen whether that's planning a diet or a budget When making your meal plan the first question to ask is how many meals you want to eat each day without having to cook each day Meal prepping is not for everyone It is good for people who value convenience and free more time than they spend in the kitchen With meal prepping you generally eat the same thing for a few days in a row so you don't have to deal with leftovers or get bored with food Meal prepping is not for everyone If having nutritious food while maximizing your time and budget is important to you then trying something different every day is important Meal prepping is not for everyone Meal prepping for a whole family would be quite difficult but for a small family it would be a great idea Food is stored in the refrigerator for a long time in a slow motion In addition to the way food is packed the individual nuances of your refrigerator can impact the quality of your refrigerated meals The length of time the food is acceptable to eat and the texture and flavor will be affected by the refrigerator Always begin with the refrigerator guidelines but the FDA and then consult them against your own preferences In general I don't think it's more than a few days worth of food unless you find that better food quality is important to you
