

3 What did the boy buy?

Son: I got most of the shopping you asked for, Mum. I got the last of the bread and some orange juice. But sorry, there weren't any newspapers left.

Mum: Oh, never mind, I need to remember to go in the morning. But what about the tomatoes for the salad?

Son: Ah ... I forgot. I'll go back for them.

Mum: Oh, don't worry, I'll stop and pick some up when I go out to collect your sister.

4 Which present has the girl bought her mother?

June: Hi ... It's me, June ... I've got Mum's birthday present: I think she'll like it ... Yes, I bought a pen. She's always writing letters, so she'll find it useful ... Mmm. I thought about a CD but I'm never really sure what music she likes, and Dad's bought her a new pair of earrings for her birthday anyway. I'm sure she'll like what I've got her.

5 Which TV programme will they watch together?

Girl: Hasn't that basketball match finished yet? You know I want to watch the wildlife programme at nine o'clock.

Boy: It's cancelled, and everything's running late because the rock concert finished later than expected. So come and watch this match with me. It's really exciting, and more interesting than looking at animals.

Girl: Oh, OK then.
