Higher Education? Andrew Hacker, Claudia Dreifus, 2010-08-03 What's gone wrong at our colleges and universities and how to get American higher education back on track A quarter of a million dollars It's the going tab for four years at most top tier universities Why does it cost so much and is it worth it Renowned sociologist Andrew Hacker and New York Times writer Claudia Dreifus make an incisive case that the American way of higher education now a 420 billion per year business has lost sight of its primary mission the education of young adults Going behind the myths and mantras they probe the true performance of the Ivy League the baleful influence of tenure an unhealthy reliance on part time teachers and the supersized bureaucracies which now have a life of their own As Hacker and Dreifus call for a thorough overhaul of a self indulgent system they take readers on a road trip from Princeton to Evergreen State to Florida Gulf Coast University revealing those faculties and institutions that are getting it right and proving that teaching and learning can be achieved and at a much more reasonable price
