The Digital Evangelicals Travis Warren Cooper, 2022-08-02 When it comes to evangelical Christianity the internet is both a refuge and a threat It hosts Zoom prayer groups and pornographic videos religious revolutions and silly cat videos Platforms such as social media podcasts blogs and digital Bibles all constitute new arenas for debate about social and religious boundaries theological and ecclesial orthodoxy and the internet s inherent danger and value In The Digital Evangelicals Travis Warren Cooper locates evangelicalism as a media event rather than as a coherent religious tradition by focusing on the intertwined narratives of evangelical Christianity and emerging digital culture in the United States He focuses on two dominant media traditions media sincerity immediate and direct interpersonal communication and media promiscuity communication with the primary goal of extending the Christian community regardless of physical distance Cooper whose work is informed by ethnographic fieldwork traces these conflicting paradigms from the Protestant Reformation through the rise of the digital and argues that the tension is culminating in a crisis of evangelical authority What counts as authentic interaction Who has authority over the circulation of information While many studies claim that technology influences religion The Digital Evangelicals reveals how Protestant metaphors and discourses shaped the emergence of the internet and explores what this relationship with global new media means for evangelicalism

Influencer Advertising versus Traditional Advertising, 2021-07-21 Master's Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject Communications Public Relations Advertising Marketing Social Media grade 1.0 Klagenfurt University language English abstract In the field of marketing influencer promotions evolved to an established strategy to spread awareness about brands and to target potential customers. Especially the beauty industry utilizes the strategic communication approaches through the embeddedness of products into the creative content of influencers in order to persuade consumers. The purpose of this research paper is to examine the influencing power of those digital opinion leaders while comparing this potential with traditional print advertisements in magazines. In this process particular focus has been laid on the perceived credibility of both marketing techniques applied on the luxury cosmetic market in Austria. Through a quantitative survey with paper and pencil questionnaires data on attitudes and perceptions of 120 respondents could be gathered in Klagenfurt. Results of the study reveal that influencer advertisings are not automatically more influencing than traditional print advertisements. However a positive pre attitude towards beloved influencers affect people to develop a more positive attitude towards brands and products that were advertised by social media opinion leaders. These findings suggest that luxury cosmetic brands should create a marketing mix that implements a complementary storytelling strategy between influencer promotions and print advertisements. Thereby companies can target influencer followers as well as consumers of older generations to achieve a communication concept which attract potential customers in a diversified way.
