

A woman with long, wavy red hair is shown from the chest up, resting her head against the back of a wooden chair. She is wearing a blue and white patterned knit sweater. Her eyes are closed, and her expression is one of exhaustion or stress. The background is blurred, showing what appears to be a desk or table with some papers and a pen. The overall lighting is warm and soft.

Technosleep Catherine Coveney, Michael Greaney, Eric L. Hsu, Robert Meadows, Simon J. Williams, 2023-06-25

This book draws on a variety of substantive examples from science, technology, medicine, literature, and popular culture to highlight how a new technoscientifically mediated and modified phase and form of technosleep is now in the making in the global north at least, and to discuss the consequences for our relationships to sleep, the values we accord sleep, and the very nature and normativities of sleep itself. The authors discuss how technosleep at its simplest denotes the coming together or entanglements of sleep and technology and sensitizes us to various shifts in sleep technology relations through culture, time, and place. In doing so, it pays close attention to the salience and significance of these trends and transformations to date in everyday night life, their implications for sleep inequalities, and the related issues of sleep and social justice they suggest.
