Good Meal Prep Ideas For Beginners and Dummies Barbara Dawson,2020-08-18 Meal prepping is making a meal or recipe then portioning it out to grab and go meals for later If you've ever kept your leftovers from dinner to take with you for lunch then next day you've already mini meal prepped Generally though meal prepping refers to making 3-7 days worth of food at a time Think of it like making your lunches for the week all at once instead of making your lunch every day You can use this same technique for breakfast lunch dinner and snacks Meal prepping isn't a waste and it's not too hard to do outside your home whether you plan ahead or a budget When considering a day of the week to make your meals without having to do it every day to make it work Meal prepping isn't for everyone It is good for people who value convenience and often more than anything else With meal prepping you generally eat the same thing for a few days in a row so if you don't like leftovers or get bored with food meal prepping isn't for you If having nutritious food while maximizing your time and budget is important to you then trying something different every day meal prepping is usually a good idea I've generally not seen a meal prep for a month or maybe one other person do a whole month Meal prepping for a whole month would be quite difficult but if you're committed to it it would be a great idea Food is stored in the refrigerator or frozen in a slow cooker In addition to the way food is packed the individual nuances of your refrigerator and freezer can impact the quality of your refrigerated meal So the level of acceptable health and texture and flavor will be subjective to the eater Always begin with the refrigerator guidelines both FDA and your own then go to your own preferences In general I don't think it's more than a few days worth to make a meal but I find that both the food quality and the time and effort to make it are worth it
