second of a two volume study provides a unique perspective on uprisings in nine Asian nations in the past five decades While the 2011 Arab Spring is well known the wave of uprisings that swept Asia in the 1980s remain hardly visible Through a critique of Samuel Huntington s notion of a Third Wave of democratization the author relates Asian uprisings to predecessors in 1968 and shows their subsequent influence on uprisings in Eastern Europe at the end of the 1980s By empirically reconstructing the specific history of each Asian uprising significant insight into major constituencies of change and the trajectories of these societies becomes visible This book provides detailed histories of uprisings in nine places the Philippines Burma Tibet China Taiwan Bangladesh Nepal Thailand and Indonesia as well as introductory and concluding chapters that place them in a global context and analyze them in light of major sociological theories Profusely illustrated with photographs tables graphs and charts it is the definitive and defining work from the eminent participant observer scholar of social movements

Teach from the Heart Jenell Paris,2016-06-24 How can a teacher remain whole and happy able to teach well for an entire semester an entire year and an entire career Teach from the Heart is about finding rediscovering or holding on to the heart of the teaching life which is quite literally the teacher s heart It is an encouragement to take up teaching as more than a service to provide a profession to master or a job to perform It is an invitation to artisanry teaching as a craft that we master by working with our hands over long periods of time producing results that bear the mark of their maker Whether you re just beginning or in it for the long haul sit down with Teach from the Heart and deepen your heart for the teaching life We need not bring to class the wisdom and knowledge we gained elsewhere we can take up teaching as a spiritual practice with the classroom as a sacred space for our own formation as persons With nearly forty years experience as both student and teacher Jenell Paris s perspective is hard won but still lighthearted and enthusiastic Teachers from any context will benefit stories and examples include preschool K 12 community education and college teaching

Holy Runaways Matthias Roberts,2023-10-03 Holy Runaways speaks to people who are feeling ignored oppressed or rejected by their religious community and church offering a path forward built on speaking truth deep listening and acting with compassion In the past decade church attendance among US adults has decreased by more than 25 percent Americans report leaving religious communities because of the institutions hypocrisy and resistance to change or because of trauma they have experienced in those spaces Instead of safe havens for people of faith many churches have become sites of harm places people feel the need to escape at all costs In Holy Runaways psychotherapist Matthias Roberts reaches out to those who like him want to understand the religion they ve run from and erect a new faith on firmer foundations He concludes that the best blueprint for a new spiritual home requires reimagining ourselves God and our very definition of faith Roberts blends deeply personal stories new interpretations of familiar Christian parables and recent scholarship about the dynamics of trauma to offer a way forward and a warm helpful companion for readers on their own journeys He calls out people who perpetuate systems of violence and oppression and suggests ways we can all contribute to a new system built on love and a new home we can inhabit together Living Politics, Making Music Professor Ian Christie, Professor Simon Frith, Mr Stan Rijven, 2014-05-28

The late Jan Fairley was a key figure in making world music a significant topic for popular music studies and this book celebrates her contribution to popular music scholarship by gathering her most important work together in a single place. The result is a richly informed and entertaining volume that will be of interest to all scholars in the field while also serving as an excellent introduction for students interested in popular music as a global phenomenon. This is inspiring as well as essential reading.

The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces, 1921 Living the American Dream Donald E. Hattin, 2019-11-25 In this final installment of a trilogy of books detailing the author's life, Don Hattin recounts his exciting experiences while serving on active duty in the US Air Force. Detailing the adventures and challenges of his assignment at the Flight and All Weather Testing facility atop Mt Washington in New Hampshire, Don also recalls the pleasures of his growing young family who supported his service from a cozy farm house in North Conway, New Hampshire. We learn fascinating details of jet engine testing procedures and share Don's rapture with the glorious mountaintop environment surrounding him. Upon completion of his Air Force tour of duty, Don returns to civilian life and his job as Assistant Professor of Geology at Indiana University, sharing with the reader memories of his early years as an enthusiastic professor. Humorous descriptions of family vacations and geologic field trips recall a simpler time when camping required no reservations and hearty meals cost 1.00. Don shares his recollections of Bloomington, Indiana, as it was in the mid 1950s and early 60s and details his early teaching assignments, summer field trips, and many close friendships of the era. The anecdotes of daily life with his young family capture Don's abounding enthusiasm and energy. Recounting the genesis of his long-running marine geology field course in Big Pine Key, Florida, and his promotion to Full Professor in 1965, Don's memoir brings to life his very vibrant professional and personal life. Culminating in 1969 with the details of a very exciting 9-month sabbatical spent teaching at the University of Reading, England, Don brings the reader along for many happy episodes in his version of Living the American Dream.
