Transitioned Media Gali Einav, 2010-07-27 The media industry is in transition While some changes are readily apparent we have not even begun to understand the impact of others The result is one of the most fascinating times in the history of media As digital technologies accelerate the pace of change in all facets of our lives researchers and practitioners are exploring its impact on traditional media and social interaction Transitioned Media brings together leading academics and media industry executives to identify and analyze the most transformative trends and issues. Themes include the effect of digital technologies on consumer behavior, new approaches to advertising and branding, social networks, the blogosphere, and impact of citizen journalism, music, and intellectual property rights, digital cinema, and video games. Underlying the chapters is an economic perspective with an emphasis on how new business models are being developed that take the social dimensions of digital technologies into account. The result is a unique perspective on the digital media landscape and the forces that will shape it in the future.

LeaderShift 2020 Dr. Brian P. Chinni, Dr. Ian Jukes, Dr. Nicky Mohan, 2021-02-24. In a way, in a sense, doing the same thing you have always done but expecting, wanting, or needing completely different results. Chinni et al. 2019. The modern age demands a modern education. We cannot continue to act in the same way and expect different results. It does, in fact, take a village. Educators cannot do this alone. We must come to the realization that ours is a societal issue, challenge, and responsibility, not simply that which belongs to only those who educate. Therefore, we must engage all members of both our larger and local educational communities in our mission to realize our shared vision of modern schooling, one that we all know will best serve to prepare every student for these most extraordinary and uncertain times. The time is now. LeaderShift 2020: Reinventing Our Schools for Extraordinary and Uncertain Times will inform and inspire using authentic anecdotes and an embedded collection of practical tools and resources to guide you and your educational community as you shift the paradigm of teaching, learning, and assessment in your schools. LeaderShift 2020 lays out practical steps for educational communities to best position our students for lasting success in an unprecedented world. It provides a comprehensive strategic visioning and planning process that will require you and your community to understand the essential attributes of the exemplary modern learning organization, use specific protocol to engage stakeholders in a collaborative decision-making and goal development process, and formulate and execute a shared 2020 Vision for your schools.
