Riedner, 2025-10-28 Bruegel Monet and Us once on this earth once on this familiar spot of ground walked other men and woman as actual as we are today thinking their own thoughts swayed by their own passions but now are gone one generation vanishing after another gone as utterly as we ourselves shall shortly by gone George Trevelyan The genesis of this story grew out from my long term attraction to and consideration of two paintings Pieter Brueghel's sixteenth century Fall of Icarus and Claude Monet's nineteenth century Impression sunrise For a long while I thought of the two as separate and nearly unrelated works of art different paintings different eras different traditions different references and messages Yet in spite of my being fully aware of their disparate synchronicities it got so that each time I looked at one the other inevitably crept into the back of my mind I seem to have begun to believe the two works were linked paired almost possessing some sort of weird artistic consanguinity Like a pair of long lost twins who share commonality but are yet strangers to each other a yin and a yang but where I didn't know which was the yang and which was the yin In this frustrating attempt to clear up of why I considered the Brueghel and the Monet as a strange twosome I attempted to write about their relationship I eventually found myself creating a story with the paintings as a backdrop a fiction set in a beguilingly attractive Midwest college town like the one where I now live and where beneath our pleasant veneer exist demonstrable cases of those who bully others who turn their backs to the beliefs and misfortunes of others As I worked through my story it began to dawn on me that while the Brueghel and the Monet paintings are indeed different from each other they can be said to exist as a conjoined contrasting duality and I began to worry that my seeing Monet's depiction of monumental change his declaration of Western culture throwing off the past and entering into a glowing new world of social brotherhood might well lean toward the Pollyanna That even as Monet celebrated human progress and awakening the Brueghel lurks in our psyche that we need to remind ourselves that the past like selfishness of turning away from misfortune remains with us that the awakening in Western culture the great Impressionist movement identified has yet to fully penetrate Wooster Ohio October 2025 A Time for Murder Paul Austin Ardoin, 2025-02-02 THE ONLY WAY OUT IS TO SOLVE THE CASE Everyone knows the first forty eight hours are the most important after a homicide But for Detective Luke Guillory the first forty eight hours are all he gets over and over and over The same victim the same crime scene the same long list of suspects Each reset erases his progress and resets the clock but only for him With his marriage unraveling his career stalled and his own reputation damaged by his mother's criminal conviction Luke is running out of people he can trust As Luke relives the same two days over and over he starts to uncover new clues and dangerous truths But every mistake he makes means starting from scratch To solve the murder and break the cycle Luke must think faster trust harder and risk everything even if it means making impossible choices Smart tightly plotted and packed with sharp dialogue and high stakes A Time for Murder is the pulse pounding first book in the Time Loop Detective series Perfect for fans of Blake Crouch Tana French and the movie Edge of Tomorrow this genre bending mystery blends suspense science fiction and procedural drama into a uniquely addictive read Time is Luke s enemy Truth is his only weapon And if he wants his life back he has to get it right Start A Time for Murder today and discover a twist filled thriller where every second counts and the clock is already ticking If you love page turning unputdownable mysteries then Ardoyn is the real deal Mark Stay host of Mark Stay s Creative Differences Unputdownable If you crossed The 7 Deaths of Evelyn Hardcastle with Quantum Leap you d get A Time for Murder Angela C Nurse author of A Killer Conversation What starts out as a page turning police procedural turns into a mind bending murder mystery with a Groundhog Day style time loop The elements of this novel work perfectly L J Shepherd author of The Trials of Lila Dalton
