Dear Riley Harris,

As an experienced digital marketing manager with a track record of success, I'm excited to apply for the position of Digital Marketing Manager at Limitless. During my five years in the field, I have honed my skills in developing and implementing effective digital marketing strategies that drive business growth.

In my previous role at MetroPlus, I achieved a 32% increase in website traffic through a combination of SEO optimization, targeted social media advertising, and email marketing campaigns. Additionally, I oversaw the launch of a new mobile app that resulted in a 48% increase in downloads within the first six months.

I'm passionate about staying up-to-date with the latest trends and technologies in the digital marketing space, and Limitless' innovative approach to marketing is what inspired me to apply. I'm confident my experience managing teams and collaborating with cross-functional stakeholders to achieve business objectives makes me an ideal candidate for the role.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to further discussing my qualifications and how I can help your business to continue to thrive in an interview.

Sincerely,

it in the trash But how do you write the kind of amazing cover letter that will get you in the door How can you create a narrative of your professional experience that makes the HR person sit up and take notice The key is knowing how to present yourself It does not matter if you ve spent 30 years in the work force or are just entering it the fact remains that you need to learn to how convince someone else to interview you MEET THE AUTHOR The Hyperink Team works hard to bring you high quality engaging fun content If ever you have any questions about our products or suggestions for how we can make them better please don t hesitate to contact us Happy reading EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK You ve probably figured out a few mistakes to avoid already but you d probably be surprised at what many employers are turned off by when reading cover letters Lack of proofreading This is a no brainer but many people often miss them or don t bother to spell check before sending out the cover letter and resume It s always a good idea to ask a friend or family member to check your letter for spelling errors and typos to give you a fresh perspective Not including the name of the hiring manager If you don t know who is going to read your cover letter and resume try to find out When in doubt call the company and ask who the person in charge of that department is so you can target your letter appropriately Not writing to an audience Focus each letter on each employer According to Career Builder 44 percent of executives polled said it s common for applicants to use their cover letters to show they ve learned more about the job Doing so can give you an edge against the competition Failing to sell yourself If you undersell your skills and qualifications you won t make an impression on the reader Don t just talk about your accomplishments give concrete examples Regurgitating the resume Cover letters weren t meant as a tool to repeat everything that s in your resume It s a tool to build on it and an opportunity to correlate your experience with the job you re applying for Include any training classes awards and recognition you ve received in the past that might give you an edge over the competition Buy a copy to keep reading Cover Letters That Blow Doors Open Anne McKinney,2012-04-02

CAREER DIRECTIONING Career Directioning is a method of seeking your perfect job based upon y our values abilities and personality not just another job The purpose of this book is to assist you in discovering the best right career for you If you are searching for a more satisfying career have been downsized feel as though by changing jobs you will increase your earning power or you are starting your first job search the techniques in this book will help This book is designed in a workbook format to assist you in your career management You will find that each chapter builds on the previous chapter The book begins by describing the emotional stages that we go through whenever there is a job loss Then it proceeds to describe the ways to discover your perfect job Its truly amazing how many of us lose sight of what we once were planning on doing with our career or worse yet have difficulty in describing what our ideal job would look like I have spent my career listening to people say how dissatisfied they were with their jobs and careers When I ask them what their passion is they often cannot answer what that could be Do you know what your passion is for an occupation Are you living the life that you want Are you employed in a position that is unfulfilling Are you looking for a career change Have you been a victim of downsizing It has been said that the only true success in life is to have lived life in your own way What would life be like if you lived your life in your own way When was the last time that you thought about it Did you have a dream like most of us as you were growing up to be or to do something and life got in the way Wouldnt it be wonderful if you could get up tomorrow and go to work in a position where you would feel as though you are contributing something to the organization Or being employed where you are appreciated for what you do Or better yet work in a position that you know you are making a difference Life is too short to spend time in a career that is not fulfilling Too many people ask themselves what kind of job or career would be best for them Why is it that we focus on the what rather than the how Well it is possible but you must make it happen You cant wait for employers to come to you You have to take charge of the direction of your career direction yourself What is your rationale for reading this book Could it be one of the following You are searching for a more satisfying career You have been downsized from a job You are starting your first job search Feelings like your opportunities for growth are limited where you are presently There is a basic conflict of values on the job You are a Baby Boomer and are now seeking a career that you hope will be more satisfying than what you have done so far in life There has been a significant life event that is propelling you to make a career change It could be something like a near death experience divorce turning 40 or 50 or physically unable to do the job that you have done in the past You feel as though by changing jobs you will increase your earning power You would like to pursue a dream or complete a mission Maybe you were fired or laid off and need to make a career change You have retired and now are seeking a rewarding career that you would enjoy more You have climbed the corporate ladder and your priorities have changed Often we allow corporations or organizations to manage our careers In my private career coaching practice I have helped literally thousands of individuals who have allowed corporations to totally control their lives and when they have been job eliminated or the company is acquired by another public traded corporation they find themselves searching for a new direction with their career I feel privileged like other ca
