Pan-African Futurism Reginold A. Royston, 2025-10-21 Ghana has been a crucial site of encounters between the West and Africa and a historic center for twentieth century Pan African independence movements Today it has also emerged as an important node of technology driven development in the Global South Ghana's activist software developers and digital diaspora are redefining the role of technology not simply as a means for economic growth but as a tool for greater African political autonomy In this rich ethnography Reginold A Royston uses the term Pan African futurism to describe the redemptive ethos among technologists working on development projects on the ground in Africa today Royston charts the explosion of mobile Internet access on the African continent growing interest in African tech entrepreneurship and the flowering of digital transnational ties Ghana's Pan African futurists advocate entrepreneurship and civil society activism as a means of hacking the kinds of socioeconomic development that have long been advocated by NGOs Using participant observation and interviews with tech developers on the ground and media producers in the diaspora including in virtual spaces and with communities online Royston provides a nuanced portrait of tech users focused on social good emanating from the Global South expanding the discourse for contemporary Pan African politics The Political Economy of Universal

Healthcare in Africa Philip C. Aka, Hassan Wahab, Yvette M. Alex-Assensoh, 2022-04-27 The global rise in pandemics most recently COVID 19 and other health challenges some of which are due to climate change have imposed significant challenges on the healthcare systems in economies around the world Thus this book deals with an issue that is very timely and relevant not just in Africa but globally It critically assesses healthcare reforms in Ghana under the Fourth Republic since 1993 Although it focuses on Ghana's National Health Insurance Scheme of 2003 the book instructively goes beyond this program The book argues that although Ghana is a bellwether of healthcare reforms in Africa its healthcare initiatives are still far from the service haven of healthcare as a human right Themes that animate the book's argument include the need to translate human rights law such as the right to health into practical policies that work for ordinary citizens Key highlights of the book include an increased accent on health as a human right emphasis on comparative analysis in healthcare studies and the formulation of a four hallmark framework embedded in economics law politics and human rights to act as a guide for assessment of healthcare reforms in Africa in particular and Ghana more specifically Using Ghana as a case study and analytical window into the world the book offers a valuable and timely resource for academics students and policymakers across the disciplines of development and healthcare economics law public policy political science sociology and African and Caribbean studies as well as in various fields in health science The Transatlantic Slave Trade Siyavush

Saidian, 2017-12-15 When European settlers first started their migration to the Western Hemisphere they found land that was ready for farming To build this agricultural society they bought and sold slaves from Africa Through the detailed text contemporary and historical images and informative sidebars readers get a sense of how complex and dangerous the White Malice Susan Williams, 2021-08-10 Filled with fascinating information original research and bold ideas NPR a revelatory account of how African Independence was systematically undermined by the US In 1958 in Accra Ghana the Hands Off Africa conference brought together the leading figures of African independence in a public show of political strength and purpose The charismatic Kwame Nkrumah who had just won Ghana s independence led a determined appeal for Pan Africanism Young idealistic leaders across the continent as well as African Americans seeking civil rights at home heeded his call Yet a moment that signified a new era of African freedom simultaneously marked a new era of foreign intervention and control In White Malice Susan Williams unearths the CIA s covert operations from Ghana to the Congo to the UN which frustrated the attempts of Africa s new generation of nationalist leaders to establish democratic governance These revelations dramatically upend the conventional wisdom that African nations failed to establish effective democratic states on their own accord As the old European powers moved out the US moved in Drawing on original research and recently declassified documents Williams introduces readers to idealistic African leaders and to the secret agents ambassadors and even presidents who deliberately worked against them forever altering the future of a continent

Dreamland Carly Goodman, 2023-03-13 In a world of border walls and obstacles to migration a lottery where winners can gain permanent residency in the United States sounds too good to be true Just as unlikely is the idea that the United States would make such visas available to foster diversity within a country where systemic racism endures But in 1990 the United States Diversity Visa Lottery was created to do just that Dreamland tells the surprising story of this unlikely government program and its role in American life as well as the global story of migration Historian Carly Goodman takes readers from Washington D C where proponents deployed a colorblind narrative about our nation of immigrants to secure visas for white immigrants to the African countries where it flourished and fostered dreams of going to America From the post office to the internet aspiring emigrants visa agents and others embraced the lottery and tried their luck in a time of austerity and limits Rising African immigration to the United States has enriched American life created opportunities for mobility and nourished imagined possibilities But the promise of the American dream has been threatened by the United States embrace of anti immigrant policies and persistent anti Black racism

Ghana's Foreign Policy Charles Asante, 2024-08-19 Ghana's Foreign Policy Kwame Nkrumah's Normative Legacy and Pan Africanism examines Ghana's foreign policy in the post independence era focusing on the enduring legacy of Kwame Nkrumah This book also analyzes the complexity of post independence foreign policy decision making and the influence of the post colonial narrative during the Cold War In this study Charles Asante argues that the significance and continuity of Nkrumah's legacy is often attributed to his pan Africanist leadership on the African continent fervently articulating an independent African foreign policy Leaders like Nkrumah considered themselves as the redeemers of Africa's political and economic vulnerability from its colonial experiences Asante finds that in contrast to the positive experience associated with his independence movement for Ghana

Nkrumah could not build the same kind of vision engagement and networks among other African nationalist leaders necessary for successful promotion of a Pan African region Despite Nkrumah s own foreign policy failures in the Congo the United States of Africa project and his sudden overthrow in 1966 Nkrumah s Pan African vision is still promoted as an important foreign policy objective by Ghana s politicians public servants military and academics Nigeria and the Nation-State John Campbell,2020-12-02 Nigeria despite being the African country of greatest strategic importance to the United States remains poorly understood Leading expert John Campbell explains why Nigeria projected to have the world s third highest population by 2050 is so important to understand in a world of jihadi extremism corruption oil conflict and communal violence The Design History Reader Grace Lees-Maffei,Rebecca Houze,2024-12-13 This revised and updated edition addresses the international history and practice of design from the 17th century to the present day Covering both primary texts by social theorists designers and design reformers and secondary texts in the form of key works of design history and design thinking the Reader provides an essential resource for understanding the history of design the development of the discipline and contemporary issues in design history and practice including decolonization sustainability historiography gender and globalization Extracts are grouped into thematic sections each with a contextualizing introduction by the editors and a guide to further reading The updated edition of The Design History Reader expands upon its original content and features numerous significant voices from across the globe Authors include William Morris Karl Marx Roland Barthes Victor Margolin Penny Sparke Judy Attfield Ellen Lupton and many more The Complex Interplay between Power, Politics, and African Agency Serges Djyouyou Kamga,2024-11-15 The Complex Interplay between Power Politics and African Agency The Philosophy of Toyin Falola by Serges Djyouyou Kamga examines the impact of colonialism by using Toyin Falola s philosophy as a framework It delves into the evolution of African political culture under colonial rule This book offers a unique perspective on the intricate dynamics of African society providing a deeper understanding of how power and politics have shaped African culture Kamga emphasizes the complex interplay between these elements and highlights the significance of African voices in determining their own destiny Using Falola s works this book analyzes and critiques the influence of Europe and establishes the ongoing unequal relationship between ex colonized African countries and their imperialist colonizers This book is highly recommended for scholars of African studies political science and anyone interested in African history and culture Cuba's Foreign Policy in Global Solidarity Organizations Lasse B. Lassen,2024-12-23 This book analyzes the influence of the Cuban Revolutionary Government on the evolution of the Afro Asian Peoples Solidarity Organization AAPSO The author argues that Cuba s accession to AAPSO and the convocation of two solidarity conferences 1966 1967 in Havana initiated a political shift for the organization The Cuban Revolutionary Government thus promoted the inclusion of Latin American delegations that represented their countries leftist and pro Cuban dissidence as well as rural guerilla movements Adding to that Fidel Castro s independent stance towards AAPSO s two main financiers the

USSR and the PR China fostered a gradual emancipation of the postcolonial organization from the dominance of its sponsors. The book offers a better understanding of the theoretical foundations of Cuba's foreign policy and explains how Havana used the two solidarity conferences to better the island's international prestige at times of diplomatic isolation. Retracing the diplomatic influence of a small but key diplomatic actor of the Cold War, this study will appeal to postcolonial and Latin America scholars as well as to academic researchers in contemporary history and political sciences. Popular Culture in Africa Stephanie Newell, Onookome Okome, 2013-11-12 This volume marks the 25th anniversary of Karin Barber's ground-breaking article 'Popular Arts in Africa' which stimulated new debates about African popular culture and its defining categories. Focusing on performances, audiences, social contexts and texts, contributors ask how African popular cultures contribute to the formation of an episteme. With chapters on theater, Nollywood, films, blogging and music and sports discourses, as well as on popular art forms, urban and youth cultures and gender and sexuality, the book highlights the dynamism and complexity of contemporary popular cultures in sub-Saharan Africa. Focusing on the streets of Africa, especially city streets where different cultures and cultural personalities meet, the book asks how the category of the people is identified and interpreted by African culture producers, politicians, religious leaders and by the people themselves. The book offers a nuanced, strongly historicized perspective in which African popular cultures are regarded as vehicles through which we can document ordinary people's vitality and responsiveness to political and social transformations. African Youth Cultures in a Globalized World Paul Ugor, Lord Mawuko-Yevugah, 2016-03-09 All over the world, there is growing concern about the ramifications of globalization, late modernity and general global social and economic restructuring on the lives and futures of young people. Bringing together a wide body of research to reflect on youth responses to social change in Africa, this volume shows that while young people in the region face extraordinary social challenges in their everyday lives, they also continue to devise unique ways to reinvent their difficult circumstances and prosper in the midst of seismic global and local social changes. Contributors from Africa and around the world cover a wide range of topics on African youth cultures, exploring the lives of young people not necessarily as victims but as active social players in the face of a shifting late modernist civilization. With empirical cases and varied theoretical approaches, the book offers a timely scholarly contribution to debates around globalization and its implications and impacts for Africa's youth. Temporalising Anthropology Timothy Insoll, Rachel MacLean, Benjamin Kankpeyeng, 2013 This volume contains the results of significant fieldwork completed in the Tong Hills of Northern Ghana, an area currently inhabited by the Talensi ethno-linguistic group. Although made anthropologically renowned by the anthropologist Meyer Fortes, the archaeology and material culture of the Talensi Tong Hills had largely been neglected until the research initiated by the authors. Extensive archaeological surveys and excavations were completed, allied with ethnoarchaeological and ethnobotanical research on shrines, sacrifice and indigenous medicine. The data is presented and described, and a settlement chronology for the region reconstructed. The results of the geological organic geochemical petrographic and archaeometallurgical analysis are provided The function of shrines and the meaning of shrine as a concept are evaluated and indigenous medicinal practices their links with shrines and their substances materiality and archaeological implications assessed with reference to the primary empirical material gathered Ritual performance and its inter relation with the past and the archaeological record are also considered so as to question the timelessness of previous anthropological presentations The Tong Hills are also discussed with reference to their place in the wider history and archaeology of the region This book will be useful to anyone interested in the archaeology and anthropology of African indigenous religions and ritual practices as well as those interested in West African history and the relationship between archaeology and anthropology

Kwame Bediako and African Christian Scholarship Sara J. Fretheim, 2018-04-17 In a departure from current theologically focused scholarship on Ghanaian theologian Kwame Bediako this book places him within the wider historical continuum of twentieth century Ghana and reads him as a leading Christian scholar within the African study of African religions The book traces a variety of influences and figures within this emerging African discourse in Ghana including aspects of missions and colonial history and the voices of poets politicians prophets and priests Locating Bediako within this complex twentieth century matrix this intellectual history draws upon his published and key unpublished works including his first masters and doctoral dissertations on Negritude literature an abiding influence on his later Christian thought and an essential foundation for interpreting this scholar This book also reads the Akrofi Christaller Institute of Theology Mission and Culture as text by Bediako revealing essential components of his intellectual and spiritual itinerary revealed in the Institute's community and curriculum This approach challenges narrowly focused theological scholarship on Bediako while highlighting critical methodological divisions between African Western confessional and non confessional approaches to the study of religion in Africa In doing so it highlights the rich complexity of this emerging African discourse and identifies Bediako as a pioneering African Christian intellectual within this wider field

John Akomfrah James Harvey, 2023-08-10 The films of John Akomfrah represent one of the most significant bodies of artistic production in the post war era in Britain yet little attempt has been made to analyse the consistencies and divergences across them James Harvey's John Akomfrah is the first comprehensive analytic engagement with these films offering sustained close engagement with the artist's core thematic preoccupations and aesthetic tendencies His analysis negotiates the contextual and theoretical layers of Akomfrah's rich and complex films from the intermedial diaspora aesthetics of Handsworth Songs 1986 to the intersectional spatial ecopolitics of Purple 2017 Positioning Akomfrah in the burgeoning black British arts and cultural scene of the 1980s as a member of Black Audio Film Collective Harvey traces the evolution of a critical relationship with the postcolonial archive in his early films through analysis of documentaries made for television in the 1990s and up to more recent film installations in museums and galleries
