Pdf Online Common Sense Nation Unlocking Forgotten:

Addictions Counseling Today Kevin Alderson, 2019-12-03 Focusing on the new DSM V classifications for addiction with an emphasis on CACREP neuroscience and treatment this provocative contemporary text is an essential reference for both students and practitioners wanting to gain a deeper understanding of those with addiction Magical Thinking in Public Policy John Boswell, 2022-12-01 This book explores why naïve ideals about better policymaking persist even in cynical times revealing the careful reflection at the heart of what appears to be magical thinking in public policy Contemporary policy scholarship tends to be cynical about movements to reform policymaking by making it more rational or more democratic Scholars point to the pathologies and vagaries of realpolitik that render ideals such as evidence based policymaking long term prevention collaboration transparency and citizen engagement unattainable Increasingly many go further to warn about the democratic dangers of pursuing these foolhardy goals The fact is however that scholarly objections about political obstacles and practical constraints are not news to policy actors themselves they are acutely aware of the challenges of policy work amid uncertainty complexity and contestation They privately express doubt frustration and cynicism but they continue to support promote and work towards these key aspirations in practice Through rich case studies and wide ranging theoretical discussion John Boswell offers novel insights into the continuing appeal of seemingly naïve ideals In particular he shows how turning to these ideals helps actors to reconcile and resolve key dilemmas and challenges in their everyday work Ultimately the book offers a nuanced and spirited defence of the value of clinging on to seemingly naïve ideals for better policymaking even in the face of inevitable failures and disappointments
