Bad Faith Tom Drake-Brockman, 2019-01-18 Jesus was murdered by the Jewish religious leaders whose power base was the temple of Jerusalem Saul of Tarsus later the Paul of Christianity was one of these and his brand of faith theology mirrored their theology of covenantal entitlement Thus Christianity's basic theological principles derive from those who killed Jesus This is just one of many challenging propositions backed with strong evidence that appear in this book Jesus like most Jews was attuned to faithfulness rather than pure faith to ethical behavior based on human empathy rather than metaphysical beliefs and rituals The central focus of Jesus was hewed the heart of the Jewish covenant with God which linked God's mercy to human compassion and forgiveness making both mutually interactive This hewed forgiveness was anathema to the temple's faux forgiveness and threatened its very existence Therefore Jesus came not to save us but to show us how to save ourselves Reinterpreting a key parable of Jesus in this light the Parable of the Tares Jesus can be most plausibly understood as an incarnation of Adam the original prototype human who God in Genesis appointed to oversee his creation and guide our spiritual evolution His mission was not about any sacrificial death but about establishing the spiritual humanism of Judaic hewed as the central purpose of human existence

God's Good Earth Jon Garvey, 2019-01-14 God's world was created very good Genesis chapter 1 tells us and in this book Jon Garvey rediscovers the truth known to the Church for its first 1500 years but largely forgotten now that the fall of mankind did not lessen that goodness The natural creation does not require any apologies or excuses but rather celebration and praise The author's re-examination of the scriptural evidence the writings of two millennia of Christian theologians and the physical evidence of the world itself lead to the conclusion that we both as Christians and as modern Westerners have badly misunderstood our world Restoring a truer vision of the goodness of the present creation can transform our own lives sharpen the ministry of the church to the world of both people and nature and give us a better understanding of what God always intended to bring about through Christ in the age to come
