Nora Ephron

Jul 8, 2013 • 5 hrs, 30 min

Narrated by Meryl Streep

Is it possible to write a sidesplitting novel about the breakup of the perfect marriage? If the writer is Nora Ephron, the answer is a resounding yes. For in this inspired collection of adultery, revenge, group therapy, and pot roast, the creator of Sleepless in Seattle reminds us that comedy depends on anguish as surely as ... see more attention is paid to the production and licensing of intellectual property and the rise of the social musician who has been encouraged to become more entrepreneurial. Finally every element of the industry now must consider a new type of audience the end user and their productive and distributive capacities around which services and musicians must orient their practices and investments

The Routledge Research Companion to Popular Music Education Gareth Smith, Zack Moir, Matt Brennan, Shara Rambarran, Phil Kirkman, 2017-01-20 Popular music is a growing presence in education, formal and otherwise, from primary school to postgraduate study. Programmes, courses, and modules in popular music studies, popular music performance, songwriting, and areas of music technology are becoming commonplace across higher education. Additionally, specialist pop, rock, jazz, and graded exam syllabi such as RockSchool and Trinity Rock and Pop have emerged in recent years, meaning that it is now possible for school leavers in some countries to meet university entry requirements having studied only popular music. In the context of teacher education, classroom teachers and music specialists alike are becoming increasingly empowered to introduce popular music into their classrooms. At present, research in Popular Music Education lies at the fringes of the fields of music education, ethnomusicology, community music, cultural studies, and popular music studies. The Routledge Research Companion to Popular Music Education is the first book-length publication that brings together a diverse range of scholarship in this emerging field. Perspectives include the historical, sociological, pedagogical, musicological, axiological, reflexive, critical, philosophical, and ideological.
