Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1909 A New Philosophy of Discourse Joshua Kates, 2020-11-12 What would happen if structures forms and other stand alone entities thought to comprise our intellectual toolkit words meanings signs were jettisoned How would a work written in a purportedly dead language like The Iliad or penned in a foreign tongue be approached if deemed legible without structures such as meaning bearing signs or grammatical rules A New Philosophy of Discourse charts a novel course in response to these questions coining an original concept of discourse or talk that Joshua Kates presents as more fundamental than language In Kates conception of discourse writing and speech take shape entirely as events situated within histories contexts and traditions themselves always in the making Combining literary theory literary criticism and philosophy to reveal a new perspective on discourse Kates focuses on literary criticism literary texts by Charles Bernstein and Stanley Elkin and the philosophical writings of Stanley Cavell Hans Georg Gadamer Donald Davidson and Martin Heidegger This ground breaking study bridges the analytical continental divide by working through concrete problems using novel and extended interpretations with wide ranging implications for the humanities

A Double-Edged Sword Brenda E. Novack, 2014-05-19 On first consideration one might not be inclined to view Adolf Hitler and Dietrich Bonhoeffer in relation to Jehanne d Arc Joan of Arc but Brenda E Novack does just that She demonstrates how these three prominent figures who influenced world history all acted in accordance with what they claimed or perceived to be divine sanction of their participation in violence Taking the reader on a unique exploration of their lives and deaths Novack identifies significant similarities and differences in notions of divine call and human response conveyed by these personalities and determines how they align or fail to align with the biblical prophetic tradition Taking Jehanne d Arc as her foundational study the author engages important theological issues such as the nature of revelation evil and morality The process culminates in the construction of a model of righteous warfare and human agency presented as a tool for evaluating claims to divinely sanctioned violence and as a potentially effective alternative to an outmoded and currently inadequate just war model Case studies of Hitler and Bonhoeffer tentatively establish the model s ability to steer humanity away from unnecessary destruction toward justice compassion and peace
