AMERICAN WOMEN ARTISTS, 1935-1970, 2019 "American Women Artists, 1935-1970 " Helen Langa, 2017-07-05

Numerous American women artists built successful professional careers in the mid twentieth century while confronting challenging cultural transitions shifts in stylistic avant gardism harsh political transformations and changing gender expectations for both women and men These social and political upheavals provoked complex intellectual and aesthetic tensions Critical discourses about style and expressive value were also renegotiated while still privileging masculinist concepts of aesthetic authenticity In these contexts women artists developed their careers by adopting innovative approaches to contemporary subjects techniques and media However while a few women working during these decades have gained significant recognition many others are still consigned to historical obscurity The essays in this volume take varied approaches to revising this historical silence Two focus on evidence of gender biases in several exhibitions and contemporary critical writings the rest discuss individual artists complex relationships to mainstream developments with attention to gender and political biases cultural innovations and the influence of racial ethnic diversity Several also explore new interpretative directions to open alternative possibilities for evaluating women s aesthetic and formal choices Through its complex nuanced approach to issues of gender and female agency this volume offers valuable and exciting new scholarship in twentieth century American art history and feminist studies

Earth Diplomacy Jessica L. Horton, 2024-07-19

In Earth Diplomacy Jessica L Horton reveals how Native American art in the mid twentieth century mobilized Indigenous cultures of diplomacy to place the earth itself at the center of international relations She focuses on a group of artists including Pablita Velarde Darryl Blackman and Oscar Howe who participated in exhibitions and lectures abroad as part of the United States s Cold War cultural propaganda Horton emphasizes how their art modeled a radical alternative to dominant forms of statecraft a practice she calls earth diplomacy a response to extractive colonial capitalism grounded in Native ideas of deep reciprocal relationships between humans and other beings that govern the world Horton draws on extensive archival research and oral histories as well as analyses of Indigenous creative work including paintings textiles tipis adornment and artistic demonstrations By interweaving diplomacy ecology and art history Horton advances Indigenous frameworks of

Beyond Text Jennifer Buckley, 2019-10-09 Taking up the work of prominent theater and performance artists Beyond Text reveals the audacity and beauty of avant garde performance in print With extended analyses of the works of Edward Gordon Craig German expressionist Lothar Schreyer the Living Theatre Carolee Schneemann and Guillermo Gómez-Peña the book shows how live performance and print aesthetically revived one another during a period in which both were supposed to be in a state of terminal cultural decline While the European and American avant gardes did indeed dismiss the dramatic author they also adopted print as a theatrical medium altering the status form and function of text and image in ways that continue to impact both the performing arts and the book arts Beyond Text participates in the ongoing critical effort to unsettle conventional historical and theoretical accounts of text performance relations which have too often been figured in binary chronological from page to stage or hierarchical terms Across five case studies spanning twelve decades Beyond Text demonstrates that print as noun and verb has been integral to the practices of modern and contemporary theater and performance artists
