Three Ways to Capsize a Boat Chris Stewart, 2010-05-25 Three Ways to Capsize a Boat is travel writing at its best crackling with Chris Stewart's zest for life irresistible humor and unerring lack of foresight Chris Stewart had a long and eclectic list of jobs From some of the most glamorous careers he was original drummer in Genesis to the more offbeat a sheep shearer and circus performer he had done it all or almost all So when he is offered the chance to captain a sailboat in the Greek islands one summer something he had never done before he jumped at the chance even though he'd never actually sailed before So begins the hilarious and wild adventures of Three Ways to Capsize a Boat From setting the boat on fire not once but several times in the Aegean Sea to his not so grand arrival in Spetses to meet the owners of the boat who says it isn't graceful to plow into the docks as a means of coming to a stop Stewart quickly catches the sailing bug By the end of the summer as he is facing the dreary prospect of going back to sheep shearing he jumps at the chance to be part of a crew to follow Viking Leif Eiriksson's historic journey across the Atlantic Ocean From coming to terms with the long cold nights at sea and unchanging cuisine to battling intense seasickness and managing to go to the bathroom during a massive storm a lot harder than you'd think Stewart keeps his good humor but learns in the end that perhaps the best things in life are worth coming ashore for

Collaborate or Perish! William Bratton, Zachary Tumin, 2012-01-17 In Collaborate or Perish former Los Angeles police chief and New York police commissioner William Bratton and Harvard Kennedy School's Zachary Tumin lay out a field tested playbook for collaborating across the boundaries of our networked world Today when everyone is connected collaboration is the game changer Agencies and firms citizens and groups who can collaborate Bratton and Tumin argue will thrive in the networked world those who can't are doomed to perish No one today is better known around the world for his ability to get citizens governments and industries working together to improve the safety of cities than William Bratton At Harvard Zachary Tumin has led senior executives from government and industry in executive sessions and classrooms for over a decade burnishing a global reputation for insight and leadership Together Bratton and Tumin draw on in depth accounts from Fortune 100 giants such as Alcoa Wells Fargo and Toyota from masters of collaboration in education social work and the military and from Bratton's own storied career Among the specific strategies they reveal Start collaboration with a broad vision that supporters can add to and make their own Rightsize problems and get value in the hands of users fast Get the right people involved from sponsors to grass roots Make collaboration pay in the right currency whether recognition rewards or revenue Today companies and managers face unique challenges and opportunities in reaching out to others thanks to the incredibly connected world in which we live Bratton and Tumin provide practical strategies anyone can use from the cubicle to the boardroom This is the ultimate guide to getting things done in today's networked world
