Book Creative Communities Regional Inclusion Arts:

Creative Communities Janet McDonald, Robert Mason, 2015 This is the first major collection to reimagine and analyze the role of the creative arts in building resilient and inclusive regional communities Bringing together Australia's leading theorists in the creative industries as well as case studies from practitioners working in the creative and performing arts and new material from targeted research projects the book reconceptualizes the very meaning of regionalism and the position and potential of creative spaces in nonmetropolitan centers

The Palgrave Handbook of Global Arts Education Georgina Barton, Margaret Baguley, 2017-02-14 This extensive Handbook addresses a range of contemporary issues related to arts education across the world It is divided into six sections Contextualising Arts Education Globally and Locally Arts Education Curriculum Policy and Schooling Arts Education Across the Life Span Arts Education for Social Justice Indigenous and Community Practice Health Wellbeing and Arts Education and Arts Based and Research Informed Arts Education The Handbook explores global debates within education in the areas of dance drama music media and visual arts Presenting wide ranging research from pedagogies of adaptation developed in Uganda to ethnomusicology in Malaysia and community participatory arts to wellbeing in Canada the Handbook highlights the universal need for arts education and in particular the importance of indigenous including both traditional and contemporary practice arts education With contributions from internationally renowned scholars and practitioners and building on the World Alliance for Arts Education Global Summit in 2014 the Handbook creates an essential resource for arts education practices in and out of school alongside institutional traditional and contemporary contexts Students teachers and practitioners across the arts disciplines will find the text invaluable for developing further opportunities to promote and study arts education

The Palgrave Handbook of Artistic and Cultural Responses to War since 1914 Martin Kerby, Margaret Baguley, Janet McDonald, 2018-12-05 This handbook explores a diverse range of artistic and cultural responses to modern conflict from Mons in the First World War to Kabul in the twenty first century With over thirty chapters from an international range of contributors ranging from the UK to the US and Australia and working across history art literature and media it offers a significant interdisciplinary contribution to the study of modern war and our artistic and cultural responses to it The handbook is divided into three parts The first part explores how communities and individuals responded to loss and grief by using art and culture to assimilate the experience as an act of survival and resilience The second part explores how conflict exerts a powerful influence on the expression and formation of both individual group racial cultural and national identities and the role played by art literature and education in this process The third part moves beyond the actual experience of conflict and its connection with issues of identity to explore how individuals and society have made use of art and culture to commemorate the war In this way it offers a unique breadth of vision and perspective to explore how conflicts have been both represented and remembered since the early twentieth century

explores the multiple ways in which doctoral programs are traversed by students supervisors and administrators Rather than proposing a single homogeneous approach as the most effective form of doctoral education the editors and contributors focus on the diversity of global approaches to the doctorate including doctoral experiences from Australia Finland Chile New Zealand and Spain The doctorate emerges from this analysis as a highly complex heterogeneous and situated phenomenon that resists easy solutions Strategies that are successful in traversing the doctorate are found to be grounded in contexts that cannot necessarily be generalised to other situations in doing so the authors emphasise the importance of presenting a diverse array of experiences and stories The separate and shared perspectives of doctoral students supervisors and administrations are mapped and analysed in ways that bring their voices compellingly to life this book will be of interest and value to students and scholars of the doctoral journey as well as of international and comparative education Creativity from Suburban Nowheres Ilja Van Damme,Ruth McManus,Michiel Dehaene,2023-07-26 Looking at suburbs as places of creativity gives rise to novel and thought provoking narratives that typically run counter to the idea that suburbs are sites of ordinary mundane and everyday practices Far from being geographies of nowhere dull materialistic and monotone suburbs are unpacked as being heterogeneous and historically layered places of living work and creation Situating creativity in place and time Creativity from Suburban Nowheres displaces mainstream understandings of creativity and widespread stereotypes commonly associated with the suburbs Contributors explore the particular forms of creativity that suburbs elicit both in the process of their making materialization and community construction and in the myriad ways in which suburbs are inhabited and experienced They highlight accounts of suburbs as places that give people the space and latitude to shape individual and collective identities through creative practices at odds with mainstream culture and often remote from the classic agglomeration assets associated with inner cities Anchored in historical and geographical research this volume highlights how and in what forms creativity should be understood in the suburbs why and when creativity can be found and how the notion of suburban creativity overthrows ingrained and dominant normative viewpoints Rather than seeing creativity arise despite its suburban location Creativity from Suburban Nowheres illuminates the emancipatory potential of suburbs for creativity Sustainability Citizenship in Cities Ralph Horne,John Fien,Beau B. Beza,Anitra Nelson,2016-04-28 Urban sustainability citizenship situates citizens as social change agents with an ethical and self interested stake in living sustainably with the rest of Earth Such citizens not only engage in sustainable household practices but respect the importance of awareness raising discussion and debates on sustainability policies for the common good and maintenance of Earth s ecosystems Sustainability Citizenship in Cities seeks to explain how sustainability citizenship can manifest in urban built environments as both responsibilities and rights Contributors elaborate on the concept of urban sustainability citizenship as a participatory work in progress with the aim of setting its practice firmly on the agenda This collection will prompt practitioners and researchers to rethink contemporary mobilisations of urban citizens challenged by various environmental crises such as climate change in various socio economic settings This book is a valuable resource for students academics and professionals working in various disciplines and across a range of interdisciplinary fields such as urban environment and planning citizenship as practice environmental sociology contemporary politics and governance environmental philosophy media and communications and human geography

The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica Gildersleeve, 2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature's responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts

The Social Impact of Creative Arts in Australian Communities Sandra Gattenhof, Donna Hancox, Helen Klæbe, Sasha Mackay, 2021-11-12 This book brings together discussions about Australian arts policy and funding outcomes of arts engagement in terms of social inclusion well being and education It presents exemplars of creative programs or case studies that build capacity and lasting impact for communities in urban and regional Australia This book describes the impact of the arts using narrative case studies Through this it develops conceptual understanding and frameworks that can be used to dynamically assess the value and impact of arts engagement across the three types of cultural value intrinsic value instrumental value and institutional value It focuses on how arts engagement creates supports and extends factors such as well being social inclusion and educational achievement This book provides an innovative examination of the evidence from Australian projects depicting the impact of the arts on a range of indicators and sectors
