Banks, Matthew B. Cox, Caroline Dadas, 2019-04-15 Re Orienting Writing Studies is an exploration of the intersections among queer theory rhetoric and research methods in writing studies Focusing careful theoretical attention on common research practices this collection demonstrates how queer rhetorics of writing composing textual analysis history assessment and embodiment identity significantly alter both methods and methodologies in writing studies The chapters represent a diverse set of research locations and experiences from which to articulate a new set of innovative research practices While the humanities have engaged queer theory extensively research methods have often been hermeneutic or interpretive At the same time social science approaches in composition research have foregrounded inquiry on human participants but have often struggled to understand where lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer people fit into empirical research projects Re Orienting Writing Studies works at the intersections of humanities and social science methodologies to offer new insight into using queer methods for data collection and queer practices for framing research Contributors Chanon Adsanatham Jean Bessette Nicole I Caswell Michael J Faris Hillery Glasby Deborah Kuzawa Maria Novotny G Patterson Stacey Waite Stephanie West Puckett Best of the Journals in Rhetoric and Composition 2015-2016 Steven Parks, Brian Bailie, 2017-09-30 Features the best articles published in rhetoric and composition journals in the previous year

Queer Correctives Vincent Pak, 2025-07-24 Queer Correctives explores Christian discourses of sex and sexuality in Singapore to argue that metanoia the theological concept of spiritual transformation can be read as a form of neo homophobia that coaxes change in the queer individual In Singapore Christian discourses of sex and sexuality have materialised in the form of testimonials that detail the pain and suffering of homosexuality and how Christianity has been a salve for the tribulations experienced by the storytellers This book freshly engages with Michel Foucault's posthumous and final volume of The History of Sexuality by revitalising his work on biblical metanoia to understand it as a form of neo homophobia Drawing on Foucauldian critical theory and approaches in discourse studies it shows how language is at the centre of this particular iteration of neo homophobia one that no longer finds value in overt expressions of hate and disdain for those with non normative sexualities but relies extensively on seemingly neutral calls for change and transformation in personal lives Queer Correctives takes Singapore as a case study to examine neo homophobic phenomena but its themes of change and transformation embedded in discourse will be relevant for scholars interested in contemporary iterations of Foucault's concepts of discipline and technologies of the self Together with interview data from religious sexual minorities in Singapore it captures a burgeoning form of homophobic discursive practices that eludes mainstream criticism to harm through change and transformation

Gender and Sexual Identities in Transition José Santaemilia, Patricia Bou, 2008 The aim of this volume is to offer an international panorama of gendered and sexualised experiences with new and original data collected from a variety of cultural settings and sociopolitical contexts We look at many parts of the world Japan Sweden Poland Cyprus Spain US Australia Canada Hungary with different assumptions and expectations often revealing various research practices and traditions Gendered or sexualized discourses are unstable constructions in permanent transition in a perpetual struggle to gain social legitimacy and to counter the workings of opposite discourses They constitute privileged vantage points from which one can observe and judge power relationships New identities are created and reproduced refused and challenged This volume explores among other issues the perpetuation of hegemonic masculinity in Evangelical universities the pharmaceutical industry TM s promotion of biometaphors involving a shopping strategy which revolves around compulsory heterosexuality the perpetuation of Greek Cypriot men TM s sexual superiority over women the Catholic Church s attempt to impose a restrictive view of religion and of sexual ethics the consolidation of American TV shopping channels as a setting where middle class femininity and consumption are linked stereotypically the negotiation of gender and sex related norms in groups of British Bangladeshi girls Even heterosexuality as the unmarked form of sexual identity and the primary site for the reproduction of gender difference needs to reassert its normative and prescriptive status maybe through the silent workings of tradition By suggesting the concept of transition we resist seeing the idea of identity as a fixed and definitive category Gender and sexual identities are never at rest One is never finished developing into a woman or a man or any other gender sexual identity Contributors include Joan Pujolar Andrea Simon Maeda Allyson Jule Stina Ericsson Agnieszka Kie kiewicz Janowiak Joanna Pawelczyk N 3ra Schleicher Elli Doukanari Pilar Garc c s Conejos Lidia Tanaka Jos c Santaemilia and Pia Pichler Our Voices Alberto González,Yea-Wen Chen,2016 Brief original essays teach students about particular cultures through the perspective of someone within that culture promoting greater understanding of others

Becoming La Raza José G. Izaguirre III,2024-11-26 In 1965 striking farm workers in the San Joaquin Valley sparked the beginning of the Chican movement As the movement quickly gained traction across the southwestern United States public frictions emerged and splits among activists over strategic political decisions Jos G Izaguirre III explores how these disagreements often hinged on the establishment of a racial ized identity for Mexican Americans leading to the formation of

La Raza Unida a political party dedicated to naming and defending Mexican Americans as a racialized community Through close readings of figures vocabularies and visualizations of iconic texts of the Chicano Movement including El Plan de Delano Rodolfo Corky Gonzales s I Am Joaquin and newspapers like El Grito del Norte and La Raza Izaguirre demonstrates that la raza was never singular or unified Instead he reveals a racial identity that was re negotiated re invented and re circulated against a Cold War backdrop that heightened rhetorics of race across the globe and increasingly threatened Mexican American bodies in the Vietnam War In lieu of a unified nationalist movement Izaguirre argues that activists energized and empowered La Raza as a political community by making the Chicano movement multivocal global and often aligned with whiteness For scholars of political movements US history race or rhetoric Becoming La Raza will provide a valuable perspective on one of the most important civil rights movements of the twentieth century Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Race/gender/media Rebecca Ann Lind, 2010 Race Gender Media contains 43 readings that help readers to think critically about issues of race and gender in the media The readings address a multitude of topics in three major sections Production Content and Audience and approach the matter of race and gender in the media from rhetorical social scientific and critical cultural perspectives The author places a strong emphasis on introducing the material in the book and orienting the reader to the content through overviews context specific introductions and descriptions of each reading

Argumentation and Advocacy, 1999 Chinese Women Organizing Ping-Chun Hsiung, Maria Jaschok, Cecilia Milwertz, 2001-11-01 In the process of helping women to help themselves female activists have assumed a decisive role in negotiating social and political transformations in Chinese society This is the first book that describes and analyzes the new phase of women s organizing in China which started in the 1980s and remains a vital force to the present day The political and social changes taking place in contemporary Chinese society have surprisingly received scant attention This volume enriches our understanding of the working of grassroots democracy in China by exploring women s popular organizing activities and their interaction with party state institutions By subjecting these activities to both empirical enquiry and theoretical scrutiny a rigorous analysis of the exchange dialogue negotiation and transformation among and within three groups of political actors popular women s groups religious groups and the All China Women s Federation is concisely presented to the reader This book will be of tremendous interest to students of Chinese Studies Political Science and Gender Studies alike Pluralizing Plagiarism Rebecca Moore Howard, Amy E. Robillard, 2008 The recent cases of Doris Kearns Goodwin and Kaavya Viswanathan demonstrate that plagiarism is a hot button issue It is also pervasive occurring in universities four year colleges community colleges and secondary schools In graduate programs international classrooms and multicultural classrooms In writing centers and writing across the curriculum programs In scholarly publications and the popular media How do we understand a literacy practice that is simultaneously so abhorred and so present in the lives of both beginning and advanced writers students and Pulitzer Prize winners Pluralizing Plagiarism offers multiple answers to this question answers that insist on taking into account the rhetorical situations in which plagiarism occurs While most scholarly publications on plagiarism mirror mass media s attempts to reduce the issue to simple black and white statements the contributors to Pluralizing Plagiarism recognize that it takes place not in universalized realms of good and bad but in specific contexts in which students cultural backgrounds often play a role Teachers concerned about plagiarism can best address the issue in the classroom especially the first year composition classroom as part of writing pedagogy and not just as a matter for punishment and prohibition Pluralizing Plagiarism opens a productive dialogue about what is at stake in plagiarism one that approaches the topic with students rather than for or about them Leading the way toward curricular reform its contributors take student work seriously and therefore encourage teachers to take student writing and learning seriously
