

Independence day Speech

Good morning respected principals, teachers and my dear friends

India was liberated on 15th of August 1947 by the slavery of the British. The date 15th of August 1947 in India has become a very important day in Indian history. It was the luckiest day of year 1947 when India became independent after lots of hard struggle and sacrifices of Indian fighters.

When India got its independence, the public of India had chosen their first Prime Minister Pandit Jawahar Lal Nehru who had unfurled the tricolor National Flag at the Red Fort in the national capital, New Delhi for the first time. All people rejoice this special day with great joy every year.
