Fourteen year old Nick has learned that the strange antiques in his attic bedroom were left there by the eccentric inventor Nikola Tesla. They are pieces of Tesla's Far Range Energy Emitter capable of transmitting free energy to the globe. Some components of the contraption are still missing but the objects themselves seem to be leading Nick and his friends to their current owners. However, members of the Accelerati, a menacing secret society of physicists, are on the hunt too, and their brazen leader, Dr. Alan Jorgenson, will stop at nothing to foil Nick and steal the objects. It takes a dangerous build up of electromagnetic energy in the atmosphere to reverse everyone's fortunes and lead Nick to his destiny. Readers who enjoy strange science, quirky humor, and out of this world plot twists will be captivated by this third and final book in the electrifying Accelerati Trilogy from New York Times bestselling and award-winning author Neal Shusterman and author/screenwriter Eric Elfman. Nick Slate, in order to protect his father and little brother, reluctantly must help the Accelerati complete Tesla's great device. Their power-mad leader wants nothing less than to control the world's energy, but there are still three missing objects to track down. Nick's friends can't help him as they are spread across the globe, grappling with their own mysteries: with Vince in Scotland, Caitlin and Mitch on their way to New Jersey, and Petula's whereabouts unknown. On his own, Nick must locate Tesla's final inventions, which are the most powerful of all, capable of shattering time and collapsing space.
