contributing editor Kristin Armstrong captures the ineffable and timeless beauty of running the importance of nurturing relationships with those we love and the significance of reflecting on our experiences This collection considers the most important reasons women run celebrating the inspiring passion runners have for their sport and illustrating how running fosters a vitally powerful community With unique wit refreshing candor and disarming vulnerability Armstrong shares her conviction that running is the perfect parallel for marking the milestones of life From describing running a hardfought race with her tightly knit group of sweat sisters to watching her children participate in the sport for the very first time Armstrong infuses her experiences with a perspective of hope that every moment is a chance to become a stronger wiser more peaceful woman Running threads these touching stories together and through each of them we are shown the universal undercurrents of inspiration growth grace family empowerment and endurance Life Drawing For Beginners Roisin Meaney,2012-08-14

From the author of Semi Sweet comes a delightful novel about the art of friendship love and still life When Audrey Matthews offers an evening class in life drawing all she s looking for is a little extra pocket money and something to fill her Tuesday nights So she hires a model and recruits five students each of whom have their own reason for being there For Zarek a Polish immigrant the class is a welcome distraction and a place to escape his dull cafe job and noisy roommate Then there s the handsome mysterious James who has moved to the small town of Carrickbawn looking for a new start for himself and his daughter He s vowed to keep to himself but then his interest in Jackie the class model and single mom takes a more personal turn While Audrey has just fallen in love with the adorable puppy in the window of the local pet shop Will she be put off by the store s brusque owner or does she find out that his bark is worse than his bite As the weeks pass it becomes clear to the members of the drawing class that their fellow students aren t exactly who they seem At Home Anywhere Mary Hoffman,2014-05-06

This collection of stories contains a multicultural thread which runs through all the pages bind the stories intimately together providing the reader with a seamless experience The tone and style flows continuously from story to story which allows the reader to experience the collection not as four isolated moments of multiculturalism but rather as a culmination of an entire world struggling to understand tolerate and accept the various cultural beliefs of the world In this prize winning collection of stories people from diverse cultural ethnic and class backgrounds respond to large historical events such as 9 11 and to forces beyond their individual control such as Hurricane Katrina others are frightened by the encounter whether in Indonesia or America and act against their own best interests At Home Anywhere celebrates common human experience and the daily confrontations between reason and passion This Many Voices project winner dazzles quietly like the work of Alice Munro or Carol Shields by drawing readers into the lives of characters trapped by unemployment cultural disorientation and family conflict Like high wire performers they teeter precariously and vividly on the brink of disaster but get their chance to survive if they can just face reality Ladies' Home Journal ,2008 Raising the Barre Lauren Kessler,2015-11-24

Like generations of little girls Lauren Kessler fell in love with ballet the first time she saw The Nutcracker and from that day at age five she dreamed of becoming a ballerina But when she was twelve her very famous ballet instructor crushed those dreams along with her youthful self assurance and she stepped away from the barre Fast forward four decades Lauren suddenly powerfully itchy restless at midlife embarks on a Transcontinental Nutcracker Binge Tour where attending a string of performances in Chicago New York Boston and San Francisco reignites her love affair with the ballet and fuels her girlhood dream What ensues is not only a story about The Nutcracker itself but also an inside look at the seemingly romantic but oh so gritty world of ballet about all that happens away from the audience's eye that precedes the magic on stage It is a tale told from the perspective of someone who not only loves it but is also seeking to live it Lauren's quest to dance The Nutcracker with the Eugene Ballet Company tackles the big issues fear angst risk resilience the refusal to settle in to midlife the refusal to become yet another Invisible Woman It is also a very funny very real look at what it's like to push yourself further than you ever thought you could go and what happens when you get there
