Dear customer

Thank you for purchasing this product.
For optimum performance and safety, please read these instructions carefully.

THE FOLLOWING APPLIES ONLY IN THE U.S.A.

CAUTION:

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.

Any unauthorized changes or modifications to this equipment would void the user's authority to operate this device.

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

Inserting the batteries

Long life alkaline batteries are recommended.
If rechargeable batteries are to be used, rechargeable batteries manufactured by Panasonic are recommended.

AAA SIZE (R603/LR03, UM-3)
(not included)

Ribbons

Note

- Lay the ribbons under the batteries to make removal easier.
- Be sure the ribbons do not stick out when the lid is closed.

If the battery cover comes loose:
Push the cover's levers into the cutouts in the compartment as shown in the illustration.

After the batteries are inserted:

If the year starts flashing on the display, set the time so the unit can keep track of the time and date of recordings. For details see "Setting the time" (page 3).

Note

Do not press the buttons while inserting the batteries. This may cause malfunction of the unit or its display.

The battery indicator

The flash memory preserves files and file information even if you remove the batteries or they go flat. Other memory items, however, revert to the factory settings if you take more than thirty seconds to replace the batteries or leave flat batteries in the unit for an extended period.

Note

- The battery indicator is not shown while the recorder is stopped.
- The unit does not work correctly if the battery cover is not closed completely.

Hold function

This function prevents accidental operation.

Hold mode

Release

"hold" appears when a button is pressed but there is no other response while this function is on.

Release HOLD before attempting any operation.
