The Economics of the National Football League Kevin G. Quinn, 2011-12-20 This book lays down a marker as to the state of economists' understanding of the National Football League (NFL) by assembling sophisticated critical surveys of by leading sports economists on major topics associated with the league. The book is divided into four parts. The first three chapters in Part I provide an overview of the business of the NFL from an economist's perspective. Part II is a collection of surveys of the economics of the NFL's most important revenue streams including media attendance and merchandising. The NFL's labor economics is the focus of Part III with chapters on player and coach labor markets, the draft and contract structure. Part IV includes essays on competitive balance, gambling, economic impacts of the Super Bowl, behavioral economic issues associated with the league, and antitrust issues. This book will appeal to sports economists, sports management professionals, and policy makers and would be useful as a supplementary text for sports economics and management courses as well as a reference text.

The American Idea Robert Vare, 2008-12-10 What is the American idea? It is the fractious, maddening approach to the conduct of human affairs that values equality despite its elusiveness, that values democracy despite its debasement, that values pluralism despite its messiness, that values the institutions of civic culture despite their flaws, and that values public life as something higher and greater than the sum of all our private lives. The founders of the magazine valued these things, and they valued the immense amount of effort it takes to preserve them from generation to generation. The Editors of The Atlantic Monthly, 2006 This landmark collection of writings by the illustrious contributors of The Atlantic Monthly is a one of a kind education in the history of American ideas. The Atlantic Monthly was founded in 1857 by a remarkable group that included some of the towering figures of nineteenth-century intellectual life: Ralph Waldo Emerson, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, and James Russell Lowell. For 150 years, the magazine has continued to honor its distinguished pedigree by publishing many of America's most prominent political commentators, journalists, historians, humorists, storytellers, and poets. Throughout the magazine's history, Atlantic contributors have unflinchingly confronted the fundamental subjects of the American experience: war and peace, science and religion, the conundrum of race, the role of women, the plight of the cities, the struggle to preserve the environment, the strengths and failings of our politics, and especially America's proper place in the world. This extraordinary anthology brings together many of the magazine's most acclaimed and influential articles. Broken Windows by James Q. Wilson and George L. Kelling took on the problem of inner-city crime and gave birth to a new way of thinking about law enforcement. The Roots of Muslim Rage by Bernard Lewis prophetically warned of the dangers posed to the West by rising Islamic extremism. Letter from Birmingham Jail by Martin Luther King Jr. became one of the twentieth century's most famous reflections upon and calls for racial equality. And The Fifty-first State by James Fallows previewed in astonishing detail the mess in which America would find itself in Iraq a full six months before the invasion. The collection also highlights some of The Atlantic's finest moments in fiction and poetry.
