Improvising the Score Gretchen L. Carlson, 2022-06-27

2023 Jazz Journalists Association (JJA) Jazz Awards for Books of the Year Honorable Mention Recipient. On December 4, 1957, Miles Davis revolutionized film soundtrack production by improvising the score for Louis Malle's Ascenseur pour l'échafaud. A cinematic harbinger of the French New Wave, Ascenseur challenged mainstream filmmaking conventions, emphasizing experimentation and creative collaboration. It was in this environment during the late 1950s to 1960s, a brief golden age for jazz in film, that many independent filmmakers valued improvisational techniques, featuring soundtracks from such seminal figures as John Lewis, Thelonious Monk, and Duke Ellington. But what of jazz in film today?

Improvising the Score: Rethinking Modern Film Music through Jazz provides an original, vivid investigation of innovative collaborations between renowned contemporary jazz artists and prominent independent filmmakers. The book explores how these integrative jazz film productions challenge us to rethink the possibilities of cinematic music production. In-depth case studies include collaborations between Terence Blanchard and Spike Lee's Malcolm X; When the Levees Broke, Dick Hyman and Woody Allen's Hannah and Her Sisters; Antonio Sánchez and Alejandro González Iñárritu's Birdman; and Mark Isham and Alan Rudolph's Afterglow. The first book of its kind, this study examines jazz artists' work in film from a sociological perspective, offering rich behind-the-scenes analyses of their unique collaborative relationships with filmmakers. It investigates how jazz artists negotiate their own creative labor, examining the tensions between improvisation and the conventionally highly regulated structures, hierarchies, and expectations of filmmaking. Grounded in personal interviews and detailed film production analysis, Improvising the Score illustrates the dynamic possibilities of integrative artistic collaborations between jazz film and other contemporary media, exemplifying its ripeness for shaping and invigorating twenty-first-century arts, media, and culture.

Uncle Cheryl Thompson, 2021-03-02

From martyr to insult, how Uncle Tom has influenced two centuries of racial politics. Jackie Robinson, President Barack Obama, Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas, O. J. Simpson, and Christopher Darden have all been accused of being an Uncle Tom during their careers. How, why, and with what consequences for our society did Uncle Tom morph first into a servile old man and then to a racial epithet hurled at African American men deemed by other Black people to have betrayed their race Uncle Tom the eponymous figure in Harriet Beecher Stowe's sentimental anti slavery novel Uncle Tom's Cabin was a loyal Christian who died a martyr's death But soon after the best selling novel appeared theatre troupes across North America and Europe transformed Stowe's story into minstrel shows featuring white men in blackface In Uncle Cheryl Thompson traces Tom's journey from literary character to racial trope She explores how Uncle Tom came to be and exposes the relentless reworking of Uncle Tom into a nostalgic racial metaphor with the power to shape how we see Black men a distortion visible in everything from Uncle Ben and Rastus The Cream of Wheat chef to Shirley Temple and Bill Bojangles Robinson to Bill Cosby In Donald Trump's post truth America where nostalgia is used as a political tool to rewrite history Uncle makes the case for why understanding the production of racial stereotypes matters more than ever before

Film and Tourism Marco Valeri, 2025-04-01 Film tourism has emerged as a major driver of tourism development for many destinations To date there has been substantial literature on the subject but little of it has engaged with the wider social science paradigm of culture film and media research The intellectual components of film tourism as an area of academic inquiry span several academic subjects such as marketing economics finance psychology social development sustainability and operations Film is a relatively obscure area of tourism research but the wider interconnections between tourism space and media are beginning to be explored and understood The interest which the topic has generated highlights this subject as one that is worthy of attention within both the academic community and in a practitioner context The contributions in this book discuss the debates about the perceived and actual impact of film tourism and what must still be learned about this phenomenon to create the most unique and satisfying visitor experiences and protect the communities and environments that it affects Fundamental questions are raised regarding the real demand for and draw of film as a tourism motivator and the range of assumptions conflicts and contradictions that underlie them
