Social Media and Politics in Africa Maggie Dwyer, Doctor Thomas Molony, 2019-07-15 The smartphone and social media have transformed Africa allowing people across the continent to share ideas organise and participate in politics like never before While both activists and governments alike have turned to social media as a new form of political mobilization some African states have increasingly sought to clamp down on the technology introducing restrictive laws or shutting down networks altogether Drawing on over a dozen new empirical case studies from Kenya to Somalia South Africa to Tanzania this collection explores how rapidly growing social media use is reshaping political engagement in Africa But while social media has often been hailed as a liberating tool the book demonstrates how it has often served to reinforce existing power dynamics rather than challenge them Featuring experts from a range of disciplines from across the continent this collection is the first comprehensive overview of social media and politics in Africa By examining the historical political and social context in which these media platforms are used the book reveals the profound effects of cyber activism cyber crime state policing and surveillance on political participation The Aesthetics of Global Protest Aidan McGarry, Itir Erhart, Hande Eslen-Ziya, Olu Jenzen, Umut Korkut, 2025-10-01 Protestors across the world use aesthetics in order to communicate their ideas and ensure their voices are heard This book looks at protest aesthetics which we consider to be the visual and performative elements of protest such as images symbols graffiti art as well as the choreography of protest actions in public spaces Through the use of social media protestors have been able to create an alternative space for people to engage with politics that is more inclusive and participatory than traditional politics This volume focuses on the role of visual culture in a highly mediated environment and draws on case studies from Europe Thailand South Africa USA Argentina and the Middle East in order to demonstrate how protestors use aesthetics to communicate their demands and ideas It examines how digital media is harnessed by protestors and argues that all protest aesthetics are performative and communicative New Critical Spaces in Transitional Justice Arnaud Kurze, Christopher K. Lamont, 2019-01-10 Since the 1980s transitional justice mechanisms have been increasingly applied to account for mass atrocities and grave human rights violations throughout the world Over time post conflict justice practices have expanded across continents and state borders and have fueled the creation of new ideas that go beyond traditional notions of amnesty retribution and reconciliation Gathering work from contributors in international law political science sociology and history New Critical Spaces in Transitional Justice addresses issues of space and time in transitional justice studies It explains new trends in responses to post conflict and post authoritarian nations and offers original empirical research to help define the field for the future Brains, Media and Politics Rodolfo Leyva, 2019-11-25 Following the 2007 2008 global financial crisis a number of prominent academics journalists and activists were quick to pronounce the demise of neoliberal capitalism and governance This rather optimistic prediction however underestimated the extent to which neoliberalism has shaped the 21st century world order and become entrenched in our sociopolitical and cognitive fabric Indeed 11 years after the crisis and in spite of the significant levels of socioeconomic inequality psychological distress and environmental destruction generated by neoliberal policies and corresponding business and cultural practices the ideological hegemony of neoliberalism has not been supplanted nor has it really faced any serious unsettling How then has neoliberalism inflected and shaped our common sense understandings of what is politically economically and culturally viable To help answer this question this book combines leading theories from sociology media communication research developmental psychology and cognitive science and draws on primary evidence from a unique mix of ethnographic survey and experimental studies of young people s leisure practices and educational experiences of young adults political socialisation processes in relation to exposure to social networking sites and of the effects of commercial media viewing on material values and support for social welfare In doing so it provides a nuanced and robustly empirically tested account of how the conscious and non conscious cognitive dimensions of people s subjectivities and everyday social practices become interpellated through and reproductive of neoliberal ideology As such this book will appeal to scholars across the social and behavioural sciences with interests in neoliberalism political engagement enculturation social reproduction and media effects Women's Movements in the Global Era Amrita Basu, 2018-05-15 This book provides a path breaking study of the genesis growth gains and dilemmas of women s movements in countries throughout the world Its focus is on the global South where women s movements have engaged in complex negotiations with national and international forces It challenges widely held assumptions about the Western origins and character of local feminisms The authors locate women s movements within the terrain from which they emerged by exploring their relationships with the state civil society and other social movements This fully revised second edition contains six new chapters by leading scholars of women and gender studies on both individual countries and on several major regions of the world Europe Africa Latin America and the Maghreb This balanced coverage enables readers to identify regional patterns and also learn from in depth case studies Women s Movements in the Global Era is essential reading for anyone interested in the global scope and implications of feminism Research Handbook of Finance and Sustainability Sabri

Boubaker,Douglas Cumming,Duc Khuong Nguyen,2018 The severe consequences of the global financial crisis 2008 2009 and numerous accounting frauds and financial scandals over the last fifteen years have led to calls for more ethical and responsible actions in all economic activities including consumption investing governance and regulation Despite the fact that ethics in business and corporate social responsibility rules have been adopted in various countries more efforts have to be devoted to motivate and empower more actors to integrate ethical behavior and rules in making business and managerial decisions The Research Handbook of Finance and Sustainability will provide the readers but particularly investors managers and policymakers with comprehensive coverage of the issues at the crossroads of finance ethics and sustainable development as well as proposed solutions while focusing on three different levels corporations investment funds and financial markets

The Routledge Companion to Non-Market Strategy Thomas C. Lawton,Tazeeb S. Rajwani,2015-04-24 It is commonplace for today's transnational enterprises to undertake political risk analysis when choosing foreign markets and creating entry strategies Despite this non market elements of corporate strategy are less well researched than the traditional market based perspectives Providing comprehensive and leading edge overviews of current scholarship this Companion surveys the current state of the field and provides a basis for improving our understanding of the non market environment encouraging new insights to improve strategies for enhancing a firm's performance and legitimacy With a foreword by David Baron the international team of contributors includes Jean Philippe Bonardi Bennet Zelner and Jonathan Doh who combine to create a book that is essential reading for students and researchers in business management and politics including those interested in business regulation environmental policy political risk and corporate social responsibility The Routledge
