Chapter 02: Community Care: The Family and Culture

MULTIPLE CHOICE

1. A married couple lives in a single-family house with their newborn son and the husband's daughter from a previous marriage. On the basis of the information given, what family form best describes this family?

- | | |
|---------------------------|--------------------|
| a. Married-blended family | c. Nuclear family |
| b. Extended family | d. Same-sex family |
- ANS: A

Married-blended families are formed as the result of divorce and remarriage. Unrelated family members join together to create a new household. Members of an extended family are kin, or family members related by blood, such as grandparents, aunts, and uncles. A nuclear family is a traditional family with male and female partners and the children resulting from that union. A same-sex family is a family with homosexual partners who cohabit with or without children.

2. In what form do families tend to be most socially vulnerable?

- | | |
|---------------------------|-------------------------|
| a. Married-blended family | c. Nuclear family |
| b. Extended family | d. Single-parent family |
- ANS: D

The single-parent family tends to be vulnerable economically and socially, creating an unstable and deprived environment for the growth potential of children. The married-blended family, the extended family, and the nuclear family are not the most socially vulnerable.

3. While working in the prenatal clinic, you care for a very diverse group of patients. When planning interventions for these families, you realize that acceptance of the interventions will be most influenced by:
