Pentecostalism And Development Pentecostalism And Development:

Pentecostalism and Development D. Freeman,2012-09-03 Development was founded on the belief that religion was not important to development processes The contributors call this assumption into question and explore the practical impacts of religion by looking at the developmental consequences of Pentecostal Christianity in Africa and by contrasting Pentecostal and secular models of change

Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development Richard Burgess,2020-04-06 This book examines the contributions both intentional and unintentional of Nigerian Pentecostal churches and NGOs to development studying their development practices broadly in relation to the intersecting spheres of politics economics health education human rights and peacebuilding In sub Saharan Africa Pentecostalism is fast becoming the dominant expression of Christianity but while the growth and civic engagement of these churches has been well documented their role in development has received less attention The Nigerian Pentecostal landscape is one of the most vibrant in Africa Churches are increasingly assuming more prominent roles as they seek to address the social and moral ills of contemporary society often in fierce competition with Islam for dominance in Nigerian public space Some scholars suggest that the combination of an enchanted worldview an emphasis on miracles and prosperity teaching and a preoccupation with evangelism discourages effective political engagement and militates against development However Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development argues that there is an emerging movement within contemporary Nigerian Pentecostalism which is becoming increasingly active in development practices This book goes on to explore the increasingly transnational approach that churches take often seeking to build multicultural congregations around the globe for instance in Britain and the United States Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development Spirit Power and Transformation will be of considerable interest to scholars and students concerned with the intersection between religion and development and to development practitioners and policy makers working in the region

Pentecostalism and Development D. Freeman,2012-09-03 Development was founded on the belief that religion was not important to development processes The contributors call this assumption into question and explore the practical impacts of religion by looking at the developmental consequences of Pentecostal Christianity in Africa and by contrasting Pentecostal and secular models of change

Nigerian Pentecostalism and Christian Social Responsibility Babatunde Aderemi Adedibu,Benson Ohion Igboin,Rotimi Alabi Oti,Isaac Deji Ayeboyin,2021-06-23 This book takes a swipe on Nigerian Pentecostalism but argues that in spite of the avalanche of criticisms there are positive contributions which can be veritable data for further interrogation of the claims of Nigerian Pentecostalism on development Many scholars have criticised rather profusely the Pentecostal movement for its ostentatious lifestyle as the only valid criterion to evaluate its developmental stride While this is legitimate it however does not tell the whole story The book argues that Nigerian Pentecostalism has long realised the need to not only concentrate on the spiritual aspect of its mandate but also on the development of the whole society in ways that all could benefit irrespective of religious social or ethnic affiliation From economic sports education

banking to health many Nigerian Pentecostal churches have adopted interventionist approach that combines pneumatic and secular strategies in what they refer to as Christian Social Responsibility thus filling developmental gaps created by a thoroughly corrupt government In this book African scholars have gathered to dissect Nigerian Pentecostalism and perform a diagnosis of the ills that weigh it down No wonder the book answers some of the most pertinent questions on Pentecostalism in Africa It shows that Pentecostal Christianity is fast becoming of age in Nigeria The long desired self critique that shapes the argument of this book itself feels like a Pentecostal miracle Dr Harvey Kwiyani Liverpool Hope University Liverpool The book is a welcome and very timely Nigerian contribution on topics that need to be on the African and global theological agenda What I liked about it is the fact that it is an honest and critical analysis of the inherent identity of Nigerian Pentecostalism in relation to the plight of poverty and many other challenges that question the depth and influence of Christianity in the African continent in general but in Nigeria in particular The book Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa Adeshina Afolayan, Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, Toyin Falola, 2018-06-29 As the epicenter of Christianity has shifted towards Africa in recent decades Pentecostalism has emerged as a particularly vibrant presence on the continent This collection of essays offers a groundbreaking study of the complex links between politics and African Pentecostalism Situated at the intersection between the political the postcolonial and global neoliberal capitalism contributors examine the roots of the Pentecostal movement s extraordinary growth how Pentecostalism intervenes in key social and political issues such as citizenship party politics development challenges and identity and conversely how politics in Africa modulate the Pentecostal movement Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa offers a wide ranging picture of a central dimension of postcolonial African life opening up new directions for future research

African Initiated Christianity and the Decolonisation of Development Philipp Öhlmann, Wilhelm Gräb, Marie-Luise Frost, 2020-01-07 This book investigates the substantial and growing contribution which African Independent and Pentecostal Churches are making to sustainable development in all its manifold forms Moreover this volume seeks to elucidate how these churches reshape the very notion of sustainable development and contribute to the decolonisation of development Fostering both overarching and comparative perspectives the book includes chapters on West Africa Nigeria Ghana and Burkina Faso and Southern Africa Zimbabwe and South Africa It aims to open up a subfield focused on African Initiated Christianity within the religion and development discourse substantially broadening the scope of the existing literature Written predominantly by scholars from the African continent the chapters in this volume illuminate potentials and perspectives of African Initiated Christianity combining theoretical contributions essays by renowned church leaders and case studies focusing on particular churches or regional contexts While the contributions in this book focus on the African continent the notion of development underlying the concept of the volume is deliberately wide and multidimensional covering economic social ecological political and cultural dimensions Therefore the book will be useful for the community of scholars interested in religion and development as well as researchers within

African studies anthropology development studies political science religious studies sociology of religion and theology It will also be a key resource for development policymakers and practitioners

Vietnamese Evangelicals and Pentecostalism Vince Le, 2018-11-05 This book offers an analysis of the historical theological and social conditions that give rise to the growth of pentecostalism among contemporary Vietnamese evangelicals Emerging from the analysis is an understanding of how underprivileged evangelicals have utilized the pentecostal emphasis on divine intervention in their pursuit of the betterment of life amid religious and ethnic marginalization Within the context of the global growth of pentecostalism Vietnamese Evangelicals and Pentecostalism shows how people at the grassroots marry the deeply local based meaning dictated by the particularity of living context and the profoundly universal truth claims made by a religion aspiring to reach all four corners of the earth to enhance life

African Pentecostalism and World Christianity Nimi Wariboko, Adeshina Afolayan, 2020-09-15 In the last fifty years the history of World Christianity has been disproportionately shaped if not defined by African Pentecostalism The objective of this volume is to investigate and interrogate the critical junctures at which World Christianity invigorates and is invigorated by African Pentecostalism The essays of the thinkers gathered here examine the general relationships between World Christianity and Africa and the specific interplays between World Christianity and African Pentecostalism Scholars from multiple disciplines continents and countries evaluate how the theological scholarship and missional works of eminent African intellectual Johnson Kwabena Asamoah Gyadu have contributed to the scholarly understanding of how Global Christianity has been mediated by its reception in Africa They also investigate how African Pentecostalism has been shaped by its contact with the diverse forms of Christianity in Africa and the rest of the world With contributions from Opoku Onyinah Harvey C Kwiyani Kirsteen Kim Craig S Keener Charles Prempeh Kenneth R Ross Trevor H G Smith Vivian Dzokoto Chammah J Kaunda Felix Kang Esoh Patrick Kofi Amisah Caleb Nyanni Marleen de Witte Oluwaseun Abimbola Philomena Njeru Nwaura Faith Lugazia Dietrich Werner Allan H Anderson

The Routledge Handbook of Religions and Global Development Emma Tomalin, 2015-02-11 This Handbook provides a cutting edge survey of the state of research on religions and global development Part one highlights critical debates that have emerged within research on religions and development particularly with respect to theoretical conceptual and methodological considerations from the perspective of development studies and its associated disciplines Parts two to six look at different regional and national development contexts and the place of religion within these These parts integrate and examine the critical debates raised in part one within empirical case studies from a range of religions and regions Different religions are situated within actual locations and case studies thus allowing a detailed and contextual understanding of their relationships to development to emerge Part seven examines the links between some important areas within development policy and practice where religion is now being considered including Faith Based Organisations and Development Public Health Religion and Development Human rights Religion and Development Sustainable Development Climate Change and Religion

Global Institutions and Religious Engagement in Development Economic Development and Religion Religion Development and Fragile States Development and Faith Based Education Taking a global approach the Handbook covers Africa Latin America South Asia East and South East Asia and the Middle East It is essential reading for students and researchers in development studies and religious studies and is highly relevant to those working in area studies as well as a range of disciplines from theology anthropology and economics to geography international relations politics and sociology

The Pentecostal Movement Nils Bloch-Hoell, 1964 Neo-Pentecostalism Nelson Kalombo Ngoy, 2019-05-23 For centuries Pentecostalism has played a significant role in oppressively shaping the life of formerly colonized people of Africa Moreover its theologies have perpetuated neocolonial policies developed through the lens of colonial legacies rooted in la mission civilizatrice mission to civilize However since the 1980s Neo Pentecostalism is increasingly reshaping the Congolese Christendom It sanctions the theologies of a prosperity gospel rooted in an uncritical reading of the Bible and self theologizing informed by a lack of literal contextual translation effects This book argues that the prosperity gospel bankrupts its adherents in this case the vulnerable impoverished sections of Sub Saharan Africa and particularly the Postcolonial Congo and instead offers a balanced theological reflection that broadens Neo Pentecostal studies with an African voice encouraging the rewriting and rereading of the story of redemptive mission The research engages a paradigm shift within global missions and world Christianity or the history of missions as the platform to negotiate literal prophetic and contextual translation and retransmission of the biblical gospel It is critical to reclaim and reestablish a hermeneutic of mixed methodologies and construct a contextual and critical interpretation of the Bible in the Congo To avoid the African assumption of cultural baggage which affects how the Congolese interpret the Bible the interpreter has to be neutral and experience the voice of Christ in the text instead of the voice of Congolese culture they must be a prophetic voice to reconstruct the authentic meaning of the salvific story

Pentecostalism and Prosperity K. Attanasi, A. Yong, 2012-02-27 While there are a growing number of researchers who are exploring the political and social aspects of the global Renewal movement few have provided sustained socio economic analyses of this phenomenon The editors and contributors to this volume offer perspectives in light of the growth of the Renewal movement in the two thirds world

Faith on the Move Stephen P. Rule, 2008 The Birth and Early Development of Pentecostalism in North America Roger Cook, 1999 Secularisation, Pentecostalism and Violence David Martin, 2017-03-16 In this book David Martin brings together a coherent summary of his many years of ground breaking academic work on the sociology of religion Covering key and contentious areas from the last half century such as secularisation religion and violence and the global rise of Pentecostalism it presents a critical recuperation of these themes some of them first initiated by the author and a review of their reception history As such this collection is vital reading for all academics with an interest in David Martin s work as well as those involved with the sociology of religion and the study of secularisation more generally Pentecostal Spirituality Steven Jack Land,1993-01-01 In this classic book leading Pentecostal scholar Steven J Land offers a constructive and controversial interpretation a re vision of the Pentecostal tradition As Pentecostalism approaches its centennial Land argues that the early years of the movement form the heart not the infancy of its spirituality and he emphasizes the crucial importance of its Wesleyan Holiness and nineteenth century revivalist restorationist roots Land s foundational study includes an account of the relationship of spirituality and theology a description and analysis of Pentecostal beliefs and practices a demonstration of how these beliefs and practices are integrated into Pentecostal affections a trinitarian definition of Pentecostal Spirituality arguing that a passion for the kingdom of God is ultimately a passion for God Himself

Pentecostal Theology Wolfgang Vondey,2017-07-13 Winner of the Pneuma Book Award 2018 from The Society for Pentecostal Studies Pentecostalism is the most rapidly growing branch of Christianity since the 20th century yet it does not lend itself well to a singular doctrine and there is therefore no single comprehensive account of Pentecostal theology worldwide In this volume Wolfgang Vondey suggests an account of Pentecostal theology that is genuine to Pentecostals worldwide while allowing for different adaptation and explication among the various Pentecostal groups He argues that Pentecostal theology is fundamentally concerned with the renewal of the Christian life identified by the transforming work of the Holy Spirit and directed toward the kingdom of God The book unfolds in two main parts illustrating the full gospel story and theology Eleven chapters identify the spiritual underpinnings and motivations for Pentecostal theology formulate a Pentecostal theology of action translate apply and exemplify Pentecostal practices and experiences and integrate Pentecostal theology in the wider Christian tradition The Pentecostal World Michael Wilkinson,Jörg Hausteil,2023-04-01 The Pentecostal World provides a comprehensive and critical introduction to one of the most vibrant and diverse expressions of contemporary Christianity Unlike many books on Pentecostalism this collection of essays from all continents does not attempt to synthesize and simplify the movement s inherent diversity and fragmented dispersion Instead the global flows of Pentecostalism are firmly grounded in local histories and expressions as well as the various modes of their worldwide reproduction The book thus argues for a new understanding of Pentecostal and Charismatic movements that accounts for the simultaneous processes of pluralization and homogenization in contemporary World Christianity Written by a distinguished team of international contributors across various disciplines the volume is comprised of six parts with each offering a critical perspective on classical themes in the study of Pentecostalism Led by a programmatic introduction the thirty six chapters within these parts explore a variety of themes history and historiography conversion spirit beliefs and exorcism prosperity politics gender relations sexual identities racism development migration pilgrimage interreligious relations media ecumenism and academic research The Pentecostal World is essential reading for students and researchers in anthropology history political science religious studies sociology and theology The book will also be very useful for those in related fields such as culture studies black studies ethnic studies and gender studies

Violent Conversion Linda van de Kamp, 2016 Examines Pentecostal conversion as a force of change revealing new insights into its dominant role in global Christianity today There has been an extraordinary growth in Pentecostalism in Africa with Brazilian Pentecostals establishing new transnational Christian connections initiating widespread changes not only in religious practice but in society This book describes its rise in Maputo capital of Mozambique and the sometimes dramatic impact of Pentecostalism on women Here large numbers of urban women are taking advantage of the opportunities Pentecostalism offers to overcome restrictions at home pioneer new life spaces and change their lives through the power of the Holy Spirit Yet conversion can also mean a violent rupturing with tradition with family and with social networks As the pastors encourage women to cut their ties with the past including ancestral spirits they come to see their kin and husbands as imbued with evil powers and many leave their families Conquering spheres that used to be forbidden to them they often live alone as unmarried women sometimes earning more than men of a similar age They are also expected to donate huge sums to the churches often money that they can ill afford bringing new hardships Linda van de Kamp is Assistant Professor in the Department of Sociology University of Amsterdam The Netherlands
