Permanent Resident at the Altar Keisha Bass, 2015-09-01 If Ava has to wear her fake smile one more time while standing in a wedding party she might come unglued She and her boyfriend Kevin have been seriously dating for a year As she approaches the marriage ripe age of thirty one she can't help but count down the days until her wedding day It seems like everyone in her immediate world is getting hitched but her cousin friend and even a co worker who is shacking up while Ava's trying to live life on the straight and narrow Kevin is the man of her dreams but his mother doesn't believe Ava is the woman of his Two of his sisters seem to be on the same page with their mother treating her like an outcast every chance they get Ava's only ally in Kevin's world is his baby sister Tweet a drug addict who takes up a lot of his time Trusting God is all Ava can do as she hopes for the best but if Ava and Kevin are meant for each other then why is it such a struggle to get down the aisle What's wrong with Ava What's wrong with Kevin Or is Kevin's mother the one calling the shots Modernity and the Construction of Sacred Space Aaron French, Katharina Waldner, 2024-07-01 This volume focuses on the connection between modern design and architectural practices and the construction of sacred spaces Not only language and ritual but space place and architecture play a significant role in constructing special or religious spaces However this concept of a constructed sacred space remains undertheorized in religious studies and the history of art and architecture in general This volume therefore revisits the question of a modern sacred space from an interdisciplinary perspective focusing on religion space and architecture during the emergence of the modern period and up until contemporary times Revisiting the ways in which modern architects and artists have endeavored to create sacred spaces and buildings for the modern world will address the underlying questions of how religious ideas especially those related to esotericism and to alternative religiosities have transformed the way sacred spaces are conceptualized today Permanent Resident at the Purse Table Keisha

Bass, 2014-02-01 If you're a size six you dance If you're Ava Alexander you watch the purses while your girlfriends dance Each man that passes her by takes a little of her self esteem After escaping a mentally abusive relationship she promises God she will wait on Him to bring her the right man And she means it until Ishmael When her best friend's fianc throws a few compliments her way she travels down the path of betrayal Ava's choice strains her friendship and sends her into a depression Ava seeks spiritual guidance from Dr Glory Moses Through God's Word there is a glimpse of hope for a restored friendship and a newfound love for the woman she is In addition a man she meets at the counseling center offers her a glimpse of what could be if she lines up with God's will for her life Will Ava be able to overcome her insecurities and step into the life God plans for her or will she continue to self destruct The Living Church, 1942 Marxism and Urban Culture

Benjamin Fraser, 2014-04-24 Marxism and Urban Culture is the first volume to reconcile social science and humanities perspectives on culture Covering a range of global cities Bologna Buenos Aires Guatemala City Liverpool London Los Angeles Madrid Mahalla al Kubra Mexico City Montreal Osaka Strasbourg Vienna the contributions fuse political and theoretical concerns with analyses of urban cultural practices and historical movements as well as urban themed literary and filmic art. Conceived as a response to the persistent rift between disciplinary Marxist approaches to culture, this book prioritizes the urban problematic and builds implicitly and explicitly on work by numerous thinkers not only Karl Marx but also David Harvey, Henri Lefebvre, Friedrich Engels, and Antonio Gramsci among others. Rather than reanimate reductive views either of Marx or of urban theory, the chapters in Marxism and Urban Culture speak broadly to the interdisciplinary connections that are increasingly the concern of cultural scholars working across and beyond the boundaries of geography, sociology, history, political science, language, and literature fields, film studies, and more. A foreword written by Andy Merrifield, the author of Metromarxism, and an introduction by Benjamin Fraser, the author of Henri Lefebvre and the Spanish Urban Experience, situate the book's chapters firmly in interdisciplinary terrain. Small Business Problems in Urban Areas, United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Small Business, 1965. Gentleman's Magazine: and Historical Chronicle, 1807.

Event Studies Donald Getz, Stephen J. Page, 2024-01-24. Fully updated and revised in its fifth edition, Event Studies remains the most comprehensive book devoted to developing knowledge and theory about event management and event tourism, focusing on the study of events, the event experience, and meanings associated with them. International in scope and embellished with useful figures and tables throughout, the authors carefully examine current forces, trends, and issues, including impacts of the pandemic. All the major types of planned events are profiled with emphasis on their forms, functions, experiential dimensions, meanings, and values. This book's framework encompasses antecedents, planning, and design outcomes and impacts, and the various patterns and processes that influence the events sector, including policy. New and expanded topics in the fifth edition include: Content has been substantially reorganised to give much more attention to establishing theoretical foundations and advocating principles for the core management functions. New content on gender studies, human rights, crisis management, and resilience, sustainability, and events as agents of change. Expert opinion boxes cover major issues: educational philosophy, technology, and its impacts, human rights, and mega events, virtual events, and agile management, trends in corporate events, happiness and well-being, event portfolios, management, civic dramaturgy, event design, trends in communications, including new media, dynamic crowd management, overtourism, and event sector recovery. Additional chapters on design, policy, management fundamentals, planning, and operations, event tourism, and the inter-related management challenges of risk, security, health, and safety, and environment. This insightful volume will be an invaluable resource for all undergraduate students of events studies throughout their degree programmes. Gentleman's Magazine and Historical Review, 1807.
